LAW INTELLIGENCE. The Circuit Court. FRIDAY, Jan. 25. ons S. McConD, Esquire, Circuit Judge. The Circuit Court for the Montreal Circuit, opened this day for the first time, for despatch of too frein that Court there had been great confusion—but that in the Circuit Court in cases of 26 5s., and under, he would follow strictly the letter of the present Act, and would not admit such excep-tions. When a man takes exception, declaring that his name is not James, but Thomas, the question would be, is he the man intended to be summoned ? If it be answered that he is, then he would order the process to be amended, and im-mediate proceedings had. In the case of H. Munro et. al. an imereby rausing great inc ce-tha mediate proceedings had. In the case of H. Munro et. al. ss. Thomas Watson, it was moved by Rose & Holmes for the Plaintiff, that the Defendant be called in open Court, and, failing to appetr, that a default be re-corted against him. The motion was made for the purpose of getting a decision on the question as to whether any provision existed for recording as to whether any provision existed for recording the Statute to direct the Clerk, ordered the De-fendant to appear before our Court. Could this mean at the Prothonotary's office ? Could it be said that because the Act declared that in appealable cases the same delay for plead-ing, answeing, and replying, should be allowed, as in the Superior Court—that, therefore, the pro-visions respecting defaults and the calling of De-fendants in the Superior Court, should also be a provision lot that Court ? Could that Court sup-ply a deficiency ? Could it create a whole sec-tion by implication ? Debtors for the most part were ignorant of Law. What was their guide ? the Queen's Writ, commanding them to ap-pear before the Court ? It could not be expected that they would understand from that that they should appear at the Clerk's office ! fect to the judgment, nothing by Jan. 26. t, of the tary that would not allow of the Circuit Court being n the usual Cou rrt room, but that it should be held in the Quarter Sessions room, which, owing to its size, is most inconvenient, if not impracti-cable for such purposes. The reasons given by the Honorable Judges were, that they could not delibere while the Court was sitting. Mr. Justice ch sma.l in ht that does Mondelet put a very singular case : He said, suppose they choose to fire cannons in that room. His Honor Judge Day replied, I can delibere even if they do. The Lawyers were always great guns The Lawyers were always great guns. This information was conveyed by Mr. Pro-thonotary Papineeu to Judge McCord and the Bar.
