

Claim

Am

Stre

Bor

Wei

CON

"Alo

Dec.

gave

our tr

ed wit

trench

Near

tempol

counte

alian

ing pla talima. and n vessel "In emy v suffici time; sand ers; and m ground On attack in Tur him ei our lo this n

All

PAI a Fre in the Salon ment forces and 1 the : 000. circle is jus ier gu eighte Fift now tain thous: munit ments be ab of tw

Ka

Illnes por Visi Car

LON Amste the Ka ous th Berlin

hurrie

the C

from

It is

Kaiser

Wester

Consta

It is fe

recurr

fatal

length on Domestic Science, and on	mostly of codfish.	Max Wareham.	ONE VESSEL LOST.	of hearty co-operation, unbounded	we reported when the Portia arriv-	there had quite a task to reach the excellent showing made by the	0	Reading and Spelling-Doris Thom-		respect and appreciation of your many		their nomes last evening. If a College in all departments, and the	The R. C. Cathedral as well as St.	as, Gladys Snow, Walter Craniford.	Another Missing Is O.K.	excellent qualities as shown to us		mild spurt of weather comes this prizes were graciously presented by	Patrick's church has been beautifully	Writing-Jean Cook, Sandy Whit-		during the ups and downs of the	season promised to be a record one.	road will be uttorly improved
Lady Davidson.	decorated for the Christmas ceremon-	ten, Mabel Baker.	Mr. R. J. Devereaux, M.H.A., had	closing year.	This has been confirmed by advices
The prize winners were:	ies. The high altars of both churches	Arithmetic-Victor Reid, Charlie	messages from St. Mary's last night	We wish you may be long spared	received from that place recently. Up	for these people? Why spend all
INDUSTRY PRIZES.	will each present a very handsome	Nixon, Emma Morgan.	making enquiries for the schooner	to think us all together in bonus		for these people? Why spend all the revenue on Tarvia pavements appearance. The cribs at the church-	General Progress-Irene Taylor	"Herald," Capt. Daley, which left	of good renowship and that our un-		and repairing "back" streets such (b), Leonore Lillie, May Holden;	es will be most realistic also.	Gladys Whitten, Ralph Reid.	here Tuesday morning for that place	ited efforts will allow you to "Pin"	age of which was put up after the Scotch method of cure. The average	as Prescott and Rennie's Mill
Form 5, Olive Mews, Muriel Cook;	0	Senior Department.	with supplies. She was out in the	the hag of success on the highest	price is now $2.75 per barrel from	Road? Wake up Mr. Gosling the Form 4. Edith Alderdice, Jean Math-	Owing to unavoidable circumstan-	Industry-No. 3 Mariorie Redstone	big snow storm and it was found this	pinnacle of your ambitions.	the nets, the best price ever re-	people are not getting a square ieson; Form 3 (a), Edith Scandrett,	ces the Band of the C.C.C. will not	Ruth Janes; No. 4, Margaret Gulliver,	morning that she was at Mall Bay,	Wishing you a right merry Xmas	ceived. The fishery at Bay of Islands	deal, and if you don't intend to do
Isabel Feaver; Form 3 (b), Jean	perform at the midnight mass in the	Nina Harvey; No. 5, Dorothy Pike;	O.K., Mrs. Daley having a telegram	and a prosperous new rear.	is very poor but very little fish hav-	justice to all-please quit.
Cowan, Stella Perlin.	Cathedral Christmas Eve Night. The	No. 6, Rosie Pynn, Lena Efford.	from her husband, saying the vessel	Yours truly,		0
Kindergarten.	chair has, however, prepared a beau-	Reading and Spelling—Doris Crani-	was safe. She is a vessel of 45 tons	L. S. SHEPPARD,	ing been netted for some time past.	KEEPING UP THEIR COURAGE
	tiful programme of sacred music.	ford, Cyril Reid, Madeline Whitten.	and was out in the snow storm and	A. C. SELLARS.	WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?
Div. 2 (a), Charlotte Green, Gwen-	0	Writing_Jennie Saunders Belle	had a terrible time of it, but Skipper		WITO IS RESI ONSIDEE.	BERLIN, Dec. 22.—The Overseas
nie Goodland; Div. 2 (b), Trixie Noseworthy, Gladys Grant; Div. 1 (a)	ESvon-eru's west to shrid like rol	Williams Lena Efford	Daley is a capable man and brought	REPLY.	The public would like to know	Agency says that the Cologne Gazette
Manipula MacQuanum, Dim 1 (b) Ka	Water Street, pays highest prices	Arithmetic-Mabel Pynn, Muriel	his schooner, through it without ac-	Dear Friends and Fellow Employees:	who is responsible for allowing	published a despatch from Athens
Marjorie MacGregor; Div. 1 (b), Ka- tie Smith.	Nfld. Fox Exchange at 276	Whitten, Laura Noseworthy.	cident.	It is with feeling of pleasure that	the large quantity of rotten rab-	stating that nearly all the British
SPECIAL PRIZES.		General Progress-Gertrude Locke,	Mr. Devereaux also had another	mere words fail to express that I have	hits recently put on the market	troops have left Imbros, Lemnos and
	There was a clean docket in	Fred. Cook, Tom. Cook, Bell Laing.	message saying that Laurence Daley's	read the address presented to me on	for solo No doubt Const O'Prion	Tenedos Islands, to be sent to Sal-
Divinity—Form 5, Elleen Nurse;	court this morning, an unusual	Geography and History-Edward	schooner of St. Mary's had been lost	your behalf by Mr. Sheppard and Mr.	has done his duty as Inspector of	onika. Troops on Imbros Island were
Form 4, Edith Alderdice; Form 3 (a),	circumstance of late. A boy who	Craniford.	at the Gaskers near St. Mary's		Foods. We shall refer to this mat-	most discontented, some of the troops
Isabel Feaver; Form 3 (b), Jean			and had become a total wreck. She		ter at greater length later.	mutinied, and five or six officers of Cowan, Etha Peckford.	a toy revolver had been summon-	Manual Training-Edward Crani-	went ashore in the storm. Mr. Dev-	ially as this address was accompan-	ter at greater length later.	the general staff are reported to have
Theory of Music-Minnie MacLean,	ed but did not appear and may be	ford.	ereaux says that Supt. H. Saunders	ied by such a handsome and valuable	ANXIOUS ABOUT SCHOONER.	been killed. Finally the troops were
Jean Cowan. Drawing-Form 6, Cecile Hayward;	arrested under warrant.	Needlework-1st. Class, Rosie Pynn	of the Anglo Co., when he was mak-	gift I shall always treasure it as a		removed after they had been prom-
Form 5, Marjorie Stirling.	Christmas Day, this year, coming	Florence Guest; 2nd. Class, Muriel	ing enquiries about these vessels last	sourvenier of the good fellowship	The schooner Minnie J. Smith left	ised that numerous reinforcements on Saturday and being an exceptional	Whitten, Mabel Pynn.	light gave him every facility to do	that has prevailed between us during	Twillingate for Seal Bay on the 20th	would be sent.
Needlework (Plain)—Form 5, Bes-		When the nrizes were distributed	so and remained in his office till past	the time we have been associated in	and up to this forenoon had not ar-midulate to not nome of thom		and up to this forenoon had not at to go out the D M C has andoned	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the	midnight to get news of them.	business, trusting this pleasant rela-	rived. Anxious enquiries were being	A DENIAL sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews;	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be depetched from	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers	midnight to get news of them.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de-	widnight to get news of them.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am-	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department.	ROME, Dec. 22The Stefani ag-sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Pay and the Pay de Verde	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed	REMOVAL NOTICE !	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department.	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to-sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel,	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C.	REMOVAL NOTICE !	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department.	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov-
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant-	REMOVAL NOTICE !	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and	REMOVAL NOTICE !	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches.	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi-	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE.	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom-	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS:	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes-	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi-	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna-	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce-	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold-	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex-	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world.	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them-	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- eu, Amelia Noonan.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup-	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- en, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con-	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor)	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely,	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, vesterday.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con-	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de-	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour-	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn.	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- eu, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex-
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- eu, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell,	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc-	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and yessels were
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell,	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw-	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- eu, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water.	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing-	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F.A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others.	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- eu, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schooner Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol-	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol- ive Mews, $20.00.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably damaged, will likely be towed over	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and fovourably known here, had been	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you the assurance that as time goes on	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to human considerations and to outside	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol-	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably damaged, will likely be towed over here.	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and tovourably known here, had been wounded in the recent fighting at	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you the assurance that as time goes on and conditions improve you will take	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to human considerations and to outside opinion, the German himself is mar-	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol- ive Mews, $20.00. English Literature—Edith House, $4.00.	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably damaged, will likely be towed over here. She was in Company for a while	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and fovourably known here, had been wounded in the recent fighting at Gallipoli. It is said that his wounds,	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you the assurance that as time goes on and conditions improve you will take interest in your work and will have	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to human considerations and to outside opinion, the German himself is mar- velling that anyone should not view	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known.
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol- ive Mews, $20.00. English Literature—Edith House, $4.00. For many of the beautiful premi-	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably damaged, will likely be towed over here. She was in Company for a while with the schooner Occident, of Wes-	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem. OPORTO MARKET This Week.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and fovourably known here, had been wounded in the recent fighting at Gallipoli. It is said that his wounds, however, are not serious.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you the assurance that as time goes on and conditions improve you will take interest in your work and will have no need to remind me for advance	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to human considerations and to outside opinion, the German himself is mar- velling that anyone should not view militarism and German principles as	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Italian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known. have to accept. " When she thinks thus of German machinery for slaughter and death. is it conceivable that she should un- derstand the abhorrence of others for
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol- ive Mews, $20.00. English Literature—Edith House, $4.00. For many of the beautiful premi- ums given the college is indebted to	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably damaged, will likely be towed over here. She was in Company for a while with the schooner Occident, of Wes-	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem. OPORTO MARKET This Week. Nfld. Stocks	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and fovourably known here, had been wounded in the recent fighting at Gallipoli. It is said that his wounds, however, are not serious.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you the assurance that as time goes on and conditions improve you will take interest in your work and will have no need to remind me for advance in wages, because, as you know, I am	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to human considerations and to outside opinion, the German himself is mar- velling that anyone should not view militarism and German principles as he does.	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Ítalian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known. have to accept. " When she thinks thus of German machinery for slaughter and death. is it conceivable that she should un- derstand the abhorrence of others for these same things? And the true
sie Thomas; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 4, Doris Mews; Form 3, Martin Cook. Needlework (Fancy)—Leah Rendel, Isabel Feaver. Attendance—Leah Rendell. Hand and Eye Work—Charlotte Green, Gladys Grant, Dorothy Sellars. C. H. E. HONORS. A.A.—Vera Hayward, Marguerite Bailey, Annette Rowsell. Intermediate—Leonore Lille, Ce- cile Hayward, Ella Steele, May Hold- ea, Amelia Noonan. Preliminary—Olive Mews, Edith House, Marjorie Stirling, Muriel Cook. C. H. E. MONEY PRIZES. A.A.—Hygiene, Annette Rowsell, $4.00. Intermediate—History, Leonore Lil- lie, $4.00. Georgraphy—May Holden, $4.00. Preliminary—Open scholarship, Ol- ive Mews, $20.00. English Literature—Edith House, $4.00. For many of the beautiful premi-	to go out, the P. M. G. has ordered that mails will be despatched from St. John's on Christmas morning to Conception Bay and the Bay de Verde and Heart's Content and Placentia Branches. SCHOONER GOES ASHORE. The schoener Renown, of Little Bay Islands, was out in the storm of Tuesday night and yesterday morning and had a hard time of it. She had all her canvass torn off her in the hurricane and was driven up in Con- ception Bay and came to an anchor last evening near Broad Cove. She lay with two anchors out, and when the wind veered off the coast she swung round and grounded on Mussel P rk, pounding heavily in the sea, and made much water. To-day she was warped off and is afloat again, and though considerably damaged, will likely be towed over here. She was in Company for a while with the schooner Occident, of Wes-	Rev. Hy. Uphill heartily thanked the donors of prizes and also the officers and men of H. M. S. Calypso for de- corating the hall, and was followed by Mr. W. W. Blackall, Supt. of C. E. Schools, who dwelt on the advant- ages of the Domestic Science and Manual Training classes which should be availed of by all girls and boys. He regretted that the school accom- modation in such an important centre as St. Mary's was not adequate to the needs, and hoped some steps would soon be divised to remedy ex- isting conditions. Rev. Canon Bolt warmly praised the work of Miss Hawkins who is in charge of the school and encour- aged the pupils to persevere in their studies. The evening closed with cheers for the teachers, Misses Haw- kins and Ellis; Rev. Hy. Uphill, and prize donors, followed by the sing- ing of the National Anthem. OPORTO MARKET This Week.	REMOVAL NOTICE ! F. A. MEWS Barrister, Solicitor, & Notary ADDRESS: City Chambers Water Street (Over Royal Bank of Canada 1st Floor) dec4,2w,s,su,th Phone 601. REPORTED CAPT. O'BRIEN WOUNDED. It was reported in the City today that Capt. Gus O'Brien, so well and fovourably known here, had been wounded in the recent fighting at Gallipoli. It is said that his wounds, however, are not serious. BAY DE VERDE STORM SWEPT.	business, trusting this pleasant rela- tionship shall always continue. It is needless to remind you that my am- bition working here in this factory is not only the work for myself but for your welfare and benefit. It is a source of pleasure to me to know that my efforts to train and educate effi- cient workers have not been wasted and that we have now in the factory young men and women with profes- sional training in the clothing busi- ness who are capable of earning their living in any city in the world. My own professional experience in the business has been imparted freely, as you know, to all who had the de- sire and ambition to learn. In conclusion my dear friends and fellow employees I hope and trust that you shall long continue to work in unity and that the present amicable relations existing between us will long continue, and I may give you the assurance that as time goes on and conditions improve you will take interest in your work and will have no need to remind me for advance in wages, because, as you know, I am always pleased and willing to give	rived. Anxious enquiries were being made about her to-day at the Marine and Fisheries Department. So Says the Queen of Greece People are forever wondering why it is that the world-wide condemna- tion of German militarism doesn't get under the skin of the Germans them- selves. It is a continued source of amazement that the censure of the civilized world rolls off what is sup- posed to be the German conscience like water off the back of a duck. The case seems to be, however, that the real blood-and-iron German—the Prussian—is so imbued with the doc- trine of militarism that he cannot appreciate the point of view of others. While the rest of us are marvelling at the indifference of the German to human considerations and to outside opinion, the German himself is mar- velling that anyone should not view militarism and German principles as	ROME, Dec. 22.—The Stefani ag- ency gave out a communication to- day, evidently in behalf of the gov- ernment to the effect that the stories concerning the sinking of the Ítalian battleship Ante-Alighiere were un- true. The Italian fleet, according to the statement, has suffered no loss. JUST ANOTHER PARIS, Dec. 22.—The sinking of the Japanese steamship Sado Mura in the Eastern Mediterranean, yesterday, by a German or Austrian submarine, is reported in a despatch from Malta. A wireless call for help reached Alex- andria in Egypt, and vessels were sent out. Details of the sinking are not known. have to accept. " When she thinks thus of German machinery for slaughter and death. is it conceivable that she should un- derstand the abhorrence of others for these same things? And the true

12