Latest Zeppelin Raid Results in Failure; Two Zeps Destroyed

Damage Done is Slight—One Woman Died From Frigate—Five Men, Seven Women and Four Children are Injured—In One Town 15 Houses are Damaged Seriously and 20 Slightly Damaged

BOMBS ARE DROPPED ON LONDON

Attacking Zeppelins are Given a Warm Reception by Aeroplanes—Two Zeppelins are Brought Down—Crews of Both Perished—Great Crowds Attracted by Firing Watch the Zeppelins as They Descend in Flames—Total of Giant Dirigibles Destroyed Date Number Five—Four Persons Injured in London

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Reports from the north of England indicate that the latest raid by German airships was futile as far as inflictions of damage were concerned. The military authorities in a number of towns had warning of the approach of the raiders, and all lights were promptly put out. In some places it was reported that the engines of the airships were heard overhead, but no bombs were dropped. It is said that most of the bombs released by the raiders fell in fields in rural districts. Reports so far received from the north-east coast only mention two German airships as having been engaged in the raid. A telegram from an unnamed town says that the first raider arrived there at 12.30 and remained a short time, during which several bombs were dropped, but nobody was injured. The second airship appeared ten minutes later and hovered over the town for a few minutes as if the commander was uncertain of his whereabouts, then turned seaward and disappeared without dropping any bombs.

AN APPEAL.

The Recruiting Committee of the Patriotic Association deem it necessary that the King's subjects in Newfoundland should be made acquainted with the present condition of affairs and that, by a full knowledge of the needs of Empire, the patriotism of the Colony may be stimulated.

HAND FEW RAPS TO UNCLE SAM

London Morning Post is Worried Over Reports that an Organized Effort is Being Made in America With Peace as the Object—Warns America Not to Interfere With Allied Plans

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Reports received from the United States that an organized effort is being made there with peace as the objective, brought out several editorials in opposition to such a move. If the Allies are even reduced to an armistice by American intrigues, says the Morning Post, they would regard the United States as a traitor to the cause of world freedom. Therefore we suggest to our American cousins that as they have decided to take no part in the war except to make money out of it, it would be wisdom for them to leave us fight out what is after all their battle. The Morning Post argues that the Germans are willing for peace immediately, and would give the Entente everything they desire, but only on one condition, namely, that Germany be allowed a free hand in Central and South America. We understand, the newspaper adds, this condition put forward, of course discreetly and unofficially, by the German Government, has been rejected by the Allies, but why should it be rejected? We are selling our South American securities, and if Americans really want peace and do not object to having Germany for a neighbour, why should England intervene? Any time in the last ten years we could have had an agreement with Germany by allowing her a free hand across the Atlantic. Britain stands between Germany and America like the counter-carp of a fortress. If Americans induce us to make peace before this job is finished, what they will have accomplished is to destroy their best defence against Germany. Americans who, if we may say so with politeness, are rather painfully ignorant of European affairs, do not seem to realize that Germany is fighting not merely for dominion over Europe, but dominion over the whole world, and if the Allies are defeated, what is there to stand against Germany?

NEWSPAPERS BLOCKED ALL NEGOTIATIONS

France and Britain Were Negotiating for the Transfer of 600,000 Tons of Shipping When Paris Newspapers Published Details of Further Continuation of the Proposed Transfer

PARIS, Nov. 28.—Negotiations between Great Britain and France for turning over to France six hundred vessels representing 600,000 tons, failed because Paris newspapers published the news pending arrangements of details, according to statements made in the House of Deputies to-day during a continuation of the debate on the French merchant marine. Louis Nail, Under Secretary for State for Marine, said the signing of the agreement was all that remained to be done when the British Admiralty announced that it was impossible to consent to the transfer of the vessels. The hope was expressed by one speaker that Great Britain would nevertheless allow France to have a number of vessels now building. Deputy Guenier said boats were being sold daily and that they could yet be had. M. Espivent De Le Villesboisnet, criticized the plan to build boats abroad and urged the adoption of his bill providing for construction of a national ship building yard. A resolution calling for co-operation and extension of maritime lines and railroads, in order to assure provisioning of the country and to lessen the high cost of living was adopted.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. quotes the Berlin "Lokal Anzeiger" commenting on the report that the Norwegian Government has conceded its submarine restrictions cannot be maintained, as follows: "It may be supposed the final agreement will soon be reached, but on addition to the submarine question there is also trouble over the question of the position of Norway as an independent neutral to be considered, and to maintain good relations with Germany she must alter her economical policies and accommodate herself to Germany's will."

The women had to be ejected from the building.

"Chemung" Was Carrying Contraband

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Official reports of the destruction of the American steamer Chemung by a German submarine were received by the State Department to-day from the American Consul at Valencia, Spain. All on board were landed safely. The case appears to be similar to the destruction of the American ship William P. Frye and Leswalana, both carrying contraband, damages for which are to be awarded by diplomatic negotiations.

There was a great ovation for the commander of the British craft responsible for the airships destruction and townspeople carried him shoulder high through the streets amid great cheering and shouting.

U.S. Attache Recalled

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Lt. Col. Joseph Kuhn, military attache to the American Embassy, has received orders of recall, and will leave at an early date for New York. No successor has been named, and no reasons for Kuhn's recall are given, but it is noted that the activity of American attaches since January has been confined to studying the war at Berlin. It is considered probable that there will be little change in the situation so long as Germany is without attaches to Washington.

The Greek Crisis

Petrograd Admits Turks Have Taken Towns South of Van in Turkish Armenia—Sofia Claims Serbs Attacks Were Put Down and That a British Offensive in Vardar Region Was Also Put Down—On the Front in France and on Austro-Italian Fronts Nothing but Bombardments Have Taken Place

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The operations of the Teutonic Allies in Roumania, which have brought them appreciably nearer to Bucharest, are still progressing from the north and northwest and southwest. The northern bank of the Danube in Roumania, extending from Giurgiu, on the railroad south of Bucharest, to opposite Vidian, a short distance from the Serbian border, is now in the hands of the Central Powers. The chapter of this point is the region opposite Vidian, Low Palauka and Rahova by the Bulgarians would seem to seriously menace the Roumanian troops from Orsova and Turnu Severin sectors who retreated southwest.

The Roumanian Government diplomatic authorities have left Bucharest and one to Jassy according to a Havas despatch from Bucharest. Jassy lies about 200 miles north northwest of Bucharest near the Russian frontier. Operations in Macedonia are somewhat clouded by reason of divergent reports.

Berlin says north of Monastir renewed attacks by the Entente Allies failed, while the Serbian War Office claims in the fighting along the whole front the Serbians at several points made advances of several hundred metres.

Sofia on the other hand says attacks on Hills 105 and the Village Parlova were put down by the Bulgarians and Germans as likewise was a British offensive in Vardar region, south of the village of Bogereditsa.

On the front in France and in Austro-Italian theatre nothing but bombardments have taken place. South of Dvinsk on the Russian front artillery duels have been in progress. Considerable activity has also developed in the region of Ruga.

In the Carpathians the Russians began another attack against the Austro-Germans. Fighting is now proceeding there.

Petrograd admits the Turks have occupied the towns of Adraled and Koshistogy, south of Van in Turkish Armenia.

A German official statement on the air raid on England says one airship was shot down and another did not return.
