A NEW QUEBEC JUDGE

ISIDORE NOEL BELLEAU IS ELE-VATED TO THE BENCH.

Sorel Barrister, Who Succeeds Justice Pelletier In the Superior Court of the Province, Is Founder of The Levis Echo, of Which He Was Once Editor-Sat In the Dominion House For Two Sessions.

Isidore Noel Belleau, K.C., of Sorel, has been elevated to the Superior Court Bench of the Province of Quebee in succession to Justice Pelletier, who has been retired. Our subject is senior member of the well known legal firm of Belleau, Bel-leau & Belleau, of Quebec. The new judge was born at Deschambeault in the county of Portneuf and was educated at the Quebec Seminary and Laval University, where he made a listinguished course and carried off premier honors. He practiced at Levis and later in the ancient capital in partnership with his brother and

He is a man of marked literary taste Echo, which he edited for some time with abilty. He was also for a while member of the editorial staff of Le Moniteur and he was mayor o Levis for a term, reorganizing the finances of that town. He is a doctor of laws and for a number of years has been solicitor for the Credit Foncier of Quebec. He is a distinguished orator and from 1878 to 1885 was one of the most redoubtable political campaigners in the Quebec district and has been at various times candidate in Port Neuf, Levis and Bellechasse. He was elected for Levis in 1885 and sat in the House of Commons for two voted himself exclusively to his proession and has been a Queen's counsellor since 1887. He is one of the most prominent members of the Queconfreres and his appointment to the superior Court bench has been well
