

A Few Figures

- Launge, nicely upholstered.....$3.90
A Good Mattress.....2.75
High Back Dining Chairs.....4.50
Woven Wire Bed Spring.....2.25
Hardwood Bedstead.....2.00
Kitchen Chairs, half doz.....1.90
A good Extension Table.....4.50
aby Carriage.....6.00

...LORD...

The Cheap Furniture Man, Brockville.

SPRING SUITS

If fine clothes you wish to try, Go to Walsh if you want to buy. He sells cheap, you'll find it so. Walsh's suits are all the go.

J. J. WALSH

TAILOR

Duggan's Old Stand.

COUNTY NEWS.

A Budget of News and Gossip. Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Every-thing Well Mixed Up.

ROCKPORT.

May 24th.—Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ferguson of Caintown were the guests of Frank Fitzsimmons on Saturday last.

MALLOTTOWN.

P. W. Andrews has treated himself to a new buggy.

TOLEDO.

A large number from here are taking in the celebration at Charleston Lake today (Monday).

WILSETOWN.

Tuesday May 25.—Miss E. A. Steacy was returned from visiting friends at Dublin.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Is the Testimony of Frank S. Emerick of Alvin, Ont.—Says South American Kidney Pills saved his Life—18 Boxes in Six Hours.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Staff of the Local-Local Announcements Collected Right Down.

Mr. Fred. Hagar, of Prescott, was a visitor in Athens last week.

Mrs. D. Fisher left for Toronto this a. m. (Wednesday) on a visit to friends.

It is probable that Athens will be favored with a visit by a cinematograph company early in June.

Early risen this (Wednesday) morning found quite a heavy coating of frost on roofs and sidewalks.

Miss Stella Scovill, Portland, joined Miss Ethel Arnold and other friends in a picnic at Charleston on Monday.

The sheep building, 24x100 ft., at Unionville fair grounds, collapsed during the heavy windstorm a week ago.

An explanatory defence of Mr. Horner's actions in respect to Rev. Mr. Mallet and the Rochester Conference will appear in next week's issue of the Reporter.

The prize list of Unionville fair was mailed to the members last week. Copies will be sent to any address on application to B. Loverin, secretary, Athens.

The fire brigade will be called out for practice on Thursday evening at 7:30 sharp. Every member of the company is expected to be on hand promptly when the gong rings.

The Queen's Birthday was loyally and right royally celebrated by a large number of people from all parts of the country at Charleston Lake on Monday last. Both afloat and ashore a very pleasant day was spent.

Wicker, owned by Miss Elsie Jones, Brockville, took third place in the race for the Queen's Plate at Toronto on Saturday last, Seagram's Ferdinand taking first place by a length and winning the guinea.

We are pleased to note that Mr. R. Thompson is again in charge of his department in the public school after a week's illness which time his work was efficiently performed by Mr. Hincks Eaton.

At the residence of her brother in Plum Hollow, to-day, Mrs. Owens is giving a dinner to her lady friends of Athens. After a very pleasant afternoon several guests returned to her home in Dakota.

Mr. Hincks Eaton is meeting with success in his sale of maps and other school supplies. It is evident from the high testimonials he has received that he is representing a reliable company, one whose aids to fancy furniture can be depended upon as accurate.

The wheelmen are jubilant over their victory in the Railway Committee Thursday, when Mr. Casey's bill, or rather the Canadian Wheelmen's Association bill, to compel railroads to carry bicycles was passed, was approved by 46 to 21.

The road commissioners have decided to put down a new 13 ft sidewalk from the west end of the Gamble House to the market corner.

The property holders opposite this section contribute $60 towards the work. Overseer Nash will cartload of lumber arrive.

We are invited by Mr. T. G. Stevens, to call and examine his complete stock of furniture. He has now on hand a fine stock of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture, also sideboards, extension tables, spring beds and mattresses; in fact everything needed for house-keeping.

These goods will be sold cheap for cash. Lumber and farm produce taken in exchange.

Shortly after the destruction by fire of the residence and barns of Mr. T. K. Layton, the latter was seen in Athens, where he was visiting relatives at Fairfield on this section on Friday night which will to a certain extent, destroy the apple blossoms which are in full bloom now.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Is the Testimony of Frank S. Emerick of Alvin, Ont.—Says South American Kidney Pills saved his Life—18 Boxes in Six Hours.

For two years I was greatly troubled with kidney disease. I suffered intense pain, and frequently was unable to work. I doctored at intervals, but got little or no relief. I began to grow worse, and the pains were frequent and intense. About this time I saw South American Kidney Pills advertised as a speedy relief for all kidney troubles. I purchased a bottle and it gave me speedy relief in a few hours. I improved steadily, and after taking four bottles I was completely cured. I consider it worth its weight in gold, for it assuredly saved my life." Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

DR. H. D. DONANT OF WALKERTON, INDIANA, IS VISITING FRIENDS IN THIS SECTION.

Mr. Stanley Johnson, of Plover, N. Y., was in Athens for several days last week.

Thomas Connors, Frankville, has taken the Fitzgerald hotel in Merrickville.

If this system is fortified by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which makes rich, red blood, there is little danger of sickness.

In the matter of the estate of Chas. Johnson of Elbe, the assignee has declared a first dividend of thirty five per cent.

Miss Mabel Bellamy of Prescott, a student at Queen's University, is spending a part of her vacation with friends in Athens.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hamilton and Mrs. M. L. Lavin, of Smith's Falls, spent the 24th in Athens, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Arnold.

Miss Gertrude Empey, Brockville, a guest of the Misses Patterson, was a member of a large picnic party at Charleston Lake on Monday.

Don't forget the auction sale of brick and drain tile on Saturday next, at 2 p. m., at the brick yard of Rose & Earl, foot of Isaac street, Athens.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. H. H. Arnold was apprised of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. D. Mansell of Brockville, and she is now attending at her bedside.

Michael Burns, the Gnanouque insurance agent, who disappeared from Athens on Saturday last, is expected to return to Athens on Monday.

The Queen's Birthday was loyally and right royally celebrated by a large number of people from all parts of the country at Charleston Lake on Monday last. Both afloat and ashore a very pleasant day was spent.

Wicker, owned by Miss Elsie Jones, Brockville, took third place in the race for the Queen's Plate at Toronto on Saturday last, Seagram's Ferdinand taking first place by a length and winning the guinea.

We are pleased to note that Mr. R. Thompson is again in charge of his department in the public school after a week's illness which time his work was efficiently performed by Mr. Hincks Eaton.

At the residence of her brother in Plum Hollow, to-day, Mrs. Owens is giving a dinner to her lady friends of Athens. After a very pleasant afternoon several guests returned to her home in Dakota.

Mr. Hincks Eaton is meeting with success in his sale of maps and other school supplies. It is evident from the high testimonials he has received that he is representing a reliable company, one whose aids to fancy furniture can be depended upon as accurate.

The wheelmen are jubilant over their victory in the Railway Committee Thursday, when Mr. Casey's bill, or rather the Canadian Wheelmen's Association bill, to compel railroads to carry bicycles was passed, was approved by 46 to 21.

The road commissioners have decided to put down a new 13 ft sidewalk from the west end of the Gamble House to the market corner.

The property holders opposite this section contribute $60 towards the work. Overseer Nash will cartload of lumber arrive.

We are invited by Mr. T. G. Stevens, to call and examine his complete stock of furniture. He has now on hand a fine stock of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture, also sideboards, extension tables, spring beds and mattresses; in fact everything needed for house-keeping.

These goods will be sold cheap for cash. Lumber and farm produce taken in exchange.

Shortly after the destruction by fire of the residence and barns of Mr. T. K. Layton, the latter was seen in Athens, where he was visiting relatives at Fairfield on this section on Friday night which will to a certain extent, destroy the apple blossoms which are in full bloom now.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Is the Testimony of Frank S. Emerick of Alvin, Ont.—Says South American Kidney Pills saved his Life—18 Boxes in Six Hours.

For two years I was greatly troubled with kidney disease. I suffered intense pain, and frequently was unable to work. I doctored at intervals, but got little or no relief. I began to grow worse, and the pains were frequent and intense. About this time I saw South American Kidney Pills advertised as a speedy relief for all kidney troubles. I purchased a bottle and it gave me speedy relief in a few hours. I improved steadily, and after taking four bottles I was completely cured. I consider it worth its weight in gold, for it assuredly saved my life." Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS TO HER GRAVE.

Spent thousands for health, but did not obtain this greatest of all blessings (Life) until she used the Great South American Rheumatic Cure—Suffered intensely for 12 years.

THERE'S A HITCH HERE

Turkey Wants to Settle Direct and Greeco Says No.

Power Have the Matter in Hand, and therefore There is No Reason Why She Should Negotiate With Turkey Direct—The Greco Expelling Greeks From the Ottoman Empire Called Ottoman Left a Record as They Departed From Athens—Greek People Anxious Now to Have the Draggings Dismissed—Turkey's Position on Supplies.

London, May 24.—The Greek Government, as a reply to the notification sent by the Turkish ambassador, has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

Italy's Italian Banned a Rumpus. London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Rome writes that the Italian government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

London, May 24.—The Telegraph's correspondent at Athens writes that the Greek government has decided to expel the Greeks from the Ottoman Empire, which was to have gone into effect today, but has been suspended in view of the negotiations.

BRITISHER CHASED BY A SPANIARD

A Fruit Vessel Which Was the First of Her Race Was Fired at Several Times.

Philadelphia, May 24.—After being chased by Spanish gunboats and passing unscathed through a storm of shot, which splashed in the water across the vessel's bows, the British fruit steamer Ethelbert arrived here last night after a five days' run from Port Antonio, Jamaica. When the Ethelbert left here May 19, she was accompanied by the British gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The first encounter with the Spanish gunboats occurred off Cape May, on the trip down. After passing the Cape, the Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It is supposed that the Spanish Government notified the British authorities at Havana that the Ethelbert would be on the vessel.

The Ethelbert was fired upon by the Spanish gunboat, the H. M. S. "Hornet," which was to accompany her, but he was arrested as she was about to go aboard. His invalid daughter was a passenger. It