HIS GRAVEL WAS SURELY CURED

Dodd's Kidney Pills Removed the Stones.

And Now Reuben Draper is Well and Strong After His Long Suffering.

Bristol, Que., July 10.—(Special).—Reuben Draper, a well known resident here, keeps the proof right with him that Dodd's Kidney Pills will surely cure the much dreaded Gravel. The proof consists of two stones, one the size of a small bean and the other as big as a grain of barley. He stopped all other treatment and started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. In a week he passed the large stone and four days later the smaller one. This cure causes a feeling of relief over people in these parts as it shows those terrible operations, long thought to be unavoidable in case of Gravel, are no longer necessary.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live From One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by All Druggists.

Sat Down in Front of Train.

Clifton Springs, N. Y., July 11.—Walter Smith, a resident of New Brunswick, N. J., and connected with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. committed suicide here yesterday. After waiting for the approach of a New York Central train at a crossing, he sat down on the rails when the locomotive was but a few feet away and was instantly cut to pieces. Mr. Smith came here about a week ago for treatment at the sanitarium.

ONE DOLLAR SAVED REPRESENTS TEN DOLLARS EARNED.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by All Druggists.

Another Marine Accident.

London, July 11.—A despatch to Lloyd's from Malta says the British torpedo boat destroyers Ernest and Locust collided near Ergasteria, Greece. Both vessels were damaged.

The worst thing about an obstacle is that it is always in the way.

Birth-marks which mark and mar the outside of the body are a grief to every mother whose children may bear them. But for every child who bears a birth-mark on the skin there are many who bear an indelible birth-mark on the mind. Nervous mothers have nervous children and many a man and woman owes an irritable and despondent temperament to those days of dread when the mother waited the hour of her maternity. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the mother for her trial. With strength comes a buoyancy of spirits and quietness of mind, which is one of the happiest gifts a mother can bestow on her offspring. By giving vigor and elasticity to the delicate womanly organs "Favorite Prescription" practically does away with the pain of maternity and makes the baby's advent as natural as the blowing of a flower. There is no opium, cocaine or other narcotic contained in "Favorite Prescription."

This would be a pleasant world if men would pay debts as cheerfully as they pay grudges.

HEIR TO HALF OF QUEBEC.

Mrs. Caroline Lambert Campbell of Brooklyn, N. Y., Will Press Claim For Twenty Millions.

Seeking to establish her claim to a $20,000,000 estate escheared for three generations by the British Government in 1760 which includes a tract a mile and a half long and a half mile wide through the heart of the City of Quebec and eight acres of the famous Plains of Abraham, Mrs. Caroline Lambert Campbell, wife of William A. Campbell, an assistant superintendent of schools in Brooklyn, has engaged counsel to push her case in the Dominion and British courts.

Recently she received from Lord Lytton, Colonial Secretary, a reply to a letter she addressed to King Edward, which states that Lord Knollys, the King's private secretary, is unable to advise His Majesty to take other action than to suggest that Mrs. Campbell take her claim to the courts.

In 1887 the Privy Council refused a joint application from representatives of the Catholic Church, the Church of England and the citizens of Quebec asking that $20,000 held by the British Government and collected as rentals upon this property should be equally divided between the two churches in Quebec. The Privy Council with the assent of Queen Victoria decided that the heir would in time appear and that the property and its usufruct from the time the decree of escheat terminated in 1887 belongs to the heirs of Louis Joseph Lambert, who gave largely of his vast fortune to the French in the French and Indian War. When the English conquered he was deprived of his estates and those of his wife, the Demoiselle Genevieve de Villery, who inherited 163 acres in Quebec City from her father.

Sir Wilfrid's Inquiry.

"Where have you been for forty years," Mrs. Campbell asked Sir Wilfrid Laurier when Mrs. Campbell visited him two years ago. "I know every member of your family and their history, and you are the only missing member." Sir Wilfrid through his wife was a collateral claimant to the Lambert estate.

The energetic efforts of Mrs. Campbell, only child of the late Leander Lambert, of Kingston, N. Y., so far have resulted only in finding many documents which Montreal and Quebec lawyers told her did not exist or had been lost. Her success would mean her life interest in the property upon which are the Provincial Parliament buildings, the Dufferin Terrace and many of the best business and residence sites in the city, for which the British Government is collecting ground rents.

Mr. Campbell went to Quebec in 1874, visited the famous old Church of the Basilica and found a priest delivering a sermon. It was known that the Lambert ancestor had built the church, and therefore became owner in perpetuity for himself and his heirs of three pews. Mr. Campbell asked the aged sexton to admit him to the Lambert pew. The man gazed at him in astonishment, and said that none but the Lamberts might enter.

"I am the husband of Augustine Lambert's granddaughter," said Mr. Campbell. The sexton hurried away, and returning with a great bunch of rusty keys led Mr. Campbell down the centre aisle and near the front opened an ancient pew. The priest paused in his discourse and the old residents half rose in their seats. As Mr. Campbell, he whispered to Mr. Campbell: "No one has sat in any of the Lambert pews for fifty years."

Grandfather's Papers Removed.

Among the effects of Mrs. Campbell's grandfather was a memorandum which read, "Treasury Office, Quebec. The papers are in the vault, No. 37, about the sixth tier from the door." Mrs. Campbell tried to see these papers. She learned that the building had been burned, but the vaults were unharmed, though their contents were removed. But where they are now she has not been able to learn from the Provincial Government.

Mrs. Campbell's father, Leander Lambert, was the oldest son of Augustine Lambert, who thought his contents were removed. "Troy about 1850 and died there in 1865. Leander had married and one child, Mrs. Campbell, was born before the young father went to St. Louis on business in 1855 and fell a victim to the cholera epidemic which swept over that city.

Augustine Lambert was the Lambert of the third generation, with whose life the escheat of his grandfather's estates ended. But he had removed to the United States. His son was dead and the young widow was not in a position to enter the controversy for the estates. So the matter slumbered in the direct line, but collateral heirs eventually learned of Augustine Lambert's death and began proceedings to recover the property, which were unsuccessful.

Died as Peacemaker in Duel.

Far back in the romantic days of Quebec Le Sieur Louis Joseph Lambert was a great man. He married the daughter of Louis Rouer de Villery and joined the vast fortune of that house to his own. He gave to the French immense sums to aid the defence of Quebec against the English, and when he sprang between the brother of his wife and another young aristocrat of old Quebec, who were fighting a duel with swords in about 1760. He saved his brother-in-law's life at the cost of his own, according to the family tradition.

The estate is estimated to be worth at least $20,000,000. Mrs. Lambert would not come into actual possession of this. It is entailed under the British law, she says, and she would have only a life interest with the right, however, to mortgage the properties. She has no son, though two daughters are as much interested as their mother in her claims, and on Mrs. Campbell's death the estates would pass to her first cousin, Henry Lambert, president of the Grand Avenue National Bank, of Kansas City, who lives in St. Louis. Another cousin is C. D. Lambert, general passenger agent of the West Shore Railroad, who investigated his rights in the matter several years ago, and discovered that he was the furthest removed of the direct descendants of Augustine Lambert.

Since Mrs. Campbell has appeared upon the field, the properties she claims in Quebec have been practically tied up and the Government declines to give any but short leases to the lands at issue. It has refused to permit the rebuilding of the Victoria Hotel, which was burned there a few years ago.

WHAT CAUSES SNORING.

When asleep, people that more breathe through the mouth instead of the nostrils, which are choked with catarrh. Just use "Catarrhoxone" before retiring and you'll quickly curing the snoring habit. By destroying the causes of catarrh and healing the membranes, Catarrhoxone makes a complete cure in every case; it cleans the nostrils, stops the discharge and prevents dropping in the throat in a few minutes. Nothing so pleasant or certain to cure snoring, catarrh or colds as Catarrhoxone—that's worth remembering.

HOW TO CURE TOOTHACHE.

Any aching tooth can be relieved instantly with Nerviline. Fill the cavity with batting dipped in Nerviline and rub the gums with Nerviline also. If the face is swollen and sore bathe the painful parts with Nerviline and cover with a flannel. This can't fail because Nerviline kills the pain outright and prevents it from returning. Stronger, quicker, more satisfactory than any other liniment, Polson's Nerviline has been the largest seller for nearly fifty years; try it yourself.

Two Exceptions.

"They say that all the world loves a lover," said the rejected suitor as he ate his dinner from the mantelpiece. "but there are generally two exceptions to the rule, the girl you want to be your wife and the man you want to be your father-in-law."

LEARN DRESSMAKING IN TWO WEEKS

I will be at the Garner Hotel, Chatham, on Saturday, July 22nd, between 9 and 6 o'clock, to show how dressmaking can be taught in two weeks. Why spend from six to nine months learning dressmaking in a shop, and then not know anything about cutting, when I teach you everything from measuring to finish in the making of ladies' and children's garments in two weeks. I have taught over 700 girls in this way within the past three years, and all were more than satisfied. If you are the wife or daughter of a farmer, mechanic, laborer, merchant or millionaire, you should learn Dressmaking. No accomplishment you can acquire will prove of such every-day, life-long value to you as a practical knowledge of Dressmaking. And if you have this knowledge you can, by saving dressmaker's bills, be able to dress much better, with less money, than you probably do now. I teach you how to put together, not only the lining, but all the outer goods in coats, skirts, waists, wrappers, sleepers, in fact everything in dressmaking. And you are losing nothing by trying, for if you are not satisfied at the end of the term, then there will be no charge. School teachers, college girls and everybody who are having your holidays now, do not fail to take advantage of this splendid opportunity. You may never get another like it. Charge for full course is $10, when you are through, if satisfied, including one of the most perfect fitting systems in use, which I give you free! I will also at the same time teach part of the course, consisting of shirtwaists, sleeves and skirts, and teach you how to use the system for $6.

I will teach at Chatham from July 24th to August 5th. Hours from 8.30 to 5. All wishing to learn, or for full particulars, be sure to see me in the upstairs parlor of the Hotel Garner on Saturday, July 22nd, at the hours named above.

An evening class will also be taught at Chatham this time. Full particulars for it can be had upon application on July 22nd.

MISS R. ELLISON,

Dressmaking Teacher,
Box 320, Brantford.
