The Wembley Exhibition Closed Doors To-day

(The Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 31.—The British Empire exhibition, which opened at Wembley in 1924 to benefit the trade of the British Empire, closed its doors to-day.
The building will be immediately dismantled. In the two years it has been running 27, 000,000 persons have visited the exhibition. Despite its popularity largely due to the constant patronage of the King, the members of the Royal Family and the prominent personages, it has not proved a financial success. It is contended, however, that the ultimate results will be incalculable in
