PRESENTATION.

On Friday evening 3rd inst, the elders and trustees of St. Marks church, Douglastown, met in the manse, and in name of the 82 50. congregation presented their pastor, the Rev. D. Mackintosh with an address and a purse of money. The following is the address, which was read by Mr. R. Jessamin, who also made the presentation.

Rev. dear sir,—It has been felt by many in your congregation that the occasion of wm. your leaving us for a short time to visit $6.55. your native land, offers a favorable opportunity of making known to you in some Alex. As a minister, we John Bryenton, 3 firsts, 3 seconds, $4.05. have learned to value your services very F. H. Jardine, 7 firsts, 4 seconds, 1 third, highly. A distinguished student, you have 2 specials, $10.55. carried your studious habits into your professional life. The result is that few ministers of our church have such a wide and accurate knowledge of literature as you have. We are glad to perceive the onds, 4 specials, $19.50. effect of your wide reading in your pulpit ministrations from Sabbath to Sabbath. While stating the truths of the gospel in all their fullness to us, and commending their morality, with loving earnestness, a grace and beauty are manifest in your dis- $5.45. ourses which cannot but commend them to the most cultured, as well as make them attractive to those who may not be able to derive the secret of their charm. You came to us six years ago as almost an unknown man in so far as the North Shore is con erned, but you have proved yourself to be a workman that needeth not to be ashamed Diligent in your attendance upon the sick and the sorrowing and ever welcome in the homes of sick and poor, you seem to be the right man in the right place. Few minisas you are-loved as a man, revered as a minister, trusted as a friend, and valued as a counsellor. To know you and Mrs Mackintosh is to love you, the longer we know you the deeper has our respect for you come. We shall miss you during the two months you are to be absent from us, but we sincerely hope that your visit to "Cale doniz, stern and wild" will result in your complete restoration to health and that many happy and prosperous years are yet

FOOT BALL NOTES.

We hear a great deal of talk about the brutality of toot-ball mostly from those who price of $8 a mile. never indulged in a first class game. There s no training which will make men of our boys as quickly as football, it teaches quickly and to act on the thought promptly and builds up a muscular system that will be a help to them as long as they live.

A meeting was held in the office of R. T. D. Aitken, City Clerk last Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a senior football team. A number of enthusiasts were resent and elected Mr. A. E. G. McKenzie captain of the team. Practice was held on

THE DERBY AND BLACK-VILLE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Derby and Blackville Agricultural Society Fair, which was held at the Temperence Hall, Millerton, on Tuesday of last week, proved a grand success in every particular. In addition to the Exhibitors of past years, several nrw competitors appeared this year, and they all make a very creditable showing. Among the new Exhibitors were, Messrs. McLaggan, Santry, J. W. Vanderbeck and G. L Crocker, all of whom deserve mention for their fine exhibits.

Of the old exhibitors, Mr. F. H. Jardine had a collection of roots which would be hard to teat at any of the fall fairs. Mr. B. N. T. Underhill showed some fiue specimens of grapes and took several prizes on other exhibits.

Messrs. W. J. and R. R. McLaggan had number of fine cattle.

The Agricultural Society and their energetic commmittee of management, are to be congratulated on the success of their fair, and the good order that prevailed during the day speaks well for the community. An account of this exhibition would not e complete without mention ef the ladies of the Methodist who served dinner in the hall. The dinner was of the best, and the ladies who served it were most obliging and

POEMS OF THE DOMINION. A CANADIAN ON BURNS.

O, bard of the winding furrow,
And the reaper's nimble blade!
Sweet prophet of the carollings
In shaw, and glen, and glade;
Who bent to teach us pathos,
And to pity lend an ear,
And to call the inner echo out
For each man's soul to hear! For each man's soul to hear

And now the world knows better

And now the world knows better
Than it ever knew before
The wees and pains, the hopes and gains
That lie at each man's door!
'This not the old-time feeding, "For me, alone, my strite."

But, "Come and know your brother-man,
And live with him his life!"

And whether we guide the furrow, Or wield the sword or the pen, Or earnestly heed the extended need Of the bodies and sonls of men, There's a manly stride beside us, As of one who would help us there, Who sowed some seed for the world's need, Langsyne, on the banks of Ayrle

And while we rear him monuments Of marble or of bronze, His ever-enduring memory rests In the hearts of Scotland's sons! As the Auld Mither thanks her laddles a',
For their mony leal "guld turns,"
She whispers our ear, as she whyes a tear—
"The best o' them a' was Bruns!"
—William Wye Sm'th.
