WILL MARYSVILLE
LUMBER MILL CLOSES
Rumors have been current for the past week that no more lumber is to be manufactured at the Marysville mill, but that the logs cut on the Nashwaak are to be taken to St. John to be used in the making of pulp at the Partington P. P. Mill, Fairville. Color was lent these stories of orders issued last week that no more logs were to be sawn at Marysville, until further orders. Mr. Alred Rowley, secretary of the Gibson Railway & Manufacturing Company, when asked today about the reports mentioned, stated that he knew nothing officially and could make no statement for publication. Friday's Daily Mail.

WILLIAM WYSE
On Thursday afternoon the funeral of William Wyse, one of Chatham's oldest, best-known and best beloved citizens, who had died on the 24th last week place. He was eighty-one years of age and leaves his wife and three children-Bernard, of New York; Barclay, of Charlottetown, and Flossie at home. Mr. Wyse had been an alderman more than once and always took a great interest in public matters. Elm Park, the one public square in Chatham that has been laid out and beautified, practically owes its existence to Mr. Wyse, who always of his achievements while he occupied this position was the drafting of a map of the river showing the location of every house; stand then in existence, but for took a great interest in it. He was at one time fishery overseer. One the last fifteen years had been in the furniture and auctioneering business. Mrs. London, of Chatham is a sister, and the brothers are Henry, of Newcastle, James and John, in the States.

SUCCESSFUL SOCIETY
One of the most successful Societies yet held by the Methodist Ladies was at the residence of Mrs. Lawrence Macdonald Friday night. There was a very large attendance, including much musical talent, and the evening passed very pleasantly. About $90 was realized. Next Friday night the gathering will be at Mrs. J. R. Allison's.

I. O. O. F. 93 YEARS' OLD
Friday, April 26th ult., was the 93rd anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Oddfellows. Since that time the sum of $9,000 has been spent in assisting destitute women and children and many other kind deeds too numerous to mention, have been done. The order flourishes in Newcastle and in every other considerable place in the province.

THE LOST MAN FOUND
Chatham World: Mr. Matthew Daley, whose disappearance from the Bowser House Tuesday night caused a sensation, returned Thursday morning. He explained that he was going to Loggieville Tuesday night, and, expecting to be out late, lowered the fire escape rope so that he might get in without ringing. This was discovered and alarmed the house. He returned by train on Wednesday, and went to Mr. James Whitney's and stayed there till Thursday morning.
