GODERICH TOWNSHIP.

Mr Nixon Sturdy has sold a two-year-old colt, sired by "Carlyle," for the handsome sum of $325.

DUNGANNON.

Messrs Jas Elliot and Wilson McLean, formerly of Goderich township and West Wawanosh, respectively, but now of Dakota, U S, visited our village with a number of brooches, with the view of making sale of them. Mr John Gay, carpenter and contractor, who is a citizen of this village, purchased one for about seventy dollars. He seems to be well pleased with the purchase. Three of them are in this vicinity at present.

Mr Stephen Irwin of West Wawanosh is at present seriously ill. As she is an aged lady in her eighty-fourth year, prospects of recovery are doubtful.

Mr Chas Robinson, who has been on a tour northward to Sault Ste Marie and other points for some time past, for the benefit of his health, arrived home on Saturday last much improved in appearance as also in health. We welcome him home, hoping that he will continue to enjoy good health.

Mrs Bernad Redmond, of West Wawanosh, had the misfortune to fall, and so doing dislocated one of her shoulder blades bones on Thursday last week. Through the good treatment of Drs Mc Kay and Case, she is rapidly recovering.

Mr Thos Durain, who has been in Dakota for some time, making sale of horses and attending to other business in connection with his property there, returned home on Saturday.

Weather since our last, at which time it was delightful, has been very changeable, a great part of it being wet and drizzly.

Mr George Horne and family have moved into our village, and are now occupying the new house on East-st, recently constructed by Mr John Gay, builder and contractor.

As Dame Rumer puts it: And thou Dungenannon art not to be the least in the land of Ontario, for into thee is coming a railroad from Port Barwell through this beautiful section of country. The terminus as yet has not been located, but probably Dungenannon, if not Kincairdine. She is pleased to report that engineers, surveyors, etc., have commenced operations in that line. Goderich folk had better take a cue on this question.

It is not generally known, but will be in the near future, that we have inventive gentlemen in our village, as we understand Messrs Wm Lane, J Brydgos and Rev W F Campbell, now pastor at Holmesville, have invented a very useful machine for taking stock of cloth, as also bales of goods, such as factory cotton, etc, which, upon being exhibited by Mr Lane at the Industrial Exhibition, Toronto, was a great centre of attraction, and pronounced to be a success by all who had the pleasure of seeing it operated. We congratulate the inventive gentlemen on their undertaking. We understand that a firm in Hamilton has undertaken to manufacture the machine, to which we shall refer in the future.

Mr F. Tamblin, son of Mr J. Tamblin, Hullett, has sold out his interest in the little Central Hotel, Brandon, to Mr D. C. McKinnon, of Portage la Prairie, who will take possession on the first of next month.

LEEburn.

The entertainment given by No. 213, L.O.G.T., on Friday evening of last week, saw a fair attendance in spite of the threatening aspect of the weather, and a good program was rendered by the local talent of the lodge. Rev. B. L. Hutton, of Victoria-st church, Goderich, gave a stirring address which dwelt much with the evils of intemperance, referring to the experience of the late John B. Gough. He told of a small boy telling an innkeeper to come out and pick up his sign that had fallen down, which on his coming out proved to be a drunken man, lying helpless, instead of a signboard. In closing, he warned the young men present to keep from the fatal L. verage. If tasted it was a fore-runner on the road to hell. Mr R. Gurn, the W.M. of the Royal Templars, Goderich, gave a searching address on the same theme. He frankly acknowledged having been a slave of the intoxicating beverage, and mentioned the progress in Goderich during the past summer, and the efforts he had made to check intemperance there. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speakers by the chairman, Mr F. B. Linfield, who hoped both would come again to future open meetings here, which for a time may be held monthly by the lodge here.

FAREWELL ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.—The presentation and address to Miss Horton took place at the residence of her father, Mr J. Horton, on Monday evening last, in the presence of some of her scholars. Following is the address: To Miss Ellen Horton, teacher of Class No. 2, Leeburn Presbyterian S.S.—Dear Teacher—Today, we the present members of your class wait on you to bid you farewell, and to wish you success in the new home you are going from to reside in. For seven years you have labored in our school earnestly and faithfully, teaching us of the great truth of another Home above, and now you sever that tie which binds us as teacher and scholars, to leave us to undertake new duties in life, and that in them God's blessing shall ever rest with you is the earnest wish of your fellow workers in the S.S., scholars and friends, who ask you to accept this slight token of remembrance from them as an expression of regard and friendship of those whom you taught and with others often consulted to advance the welfare of the Leeburn Presbyterian S.S. Signed on behalf of the school—A. C. Macdonald, supt., S. B. Williams, secy. On behalf of the scholars—Mary Reiton, J. McAllister, A. Lawson, Minnie Fulford, A. Stirling, Leeburn, Sept. 30th, 1889. Mary Reiton read the address, and Jane McAllister, Minnie Fulford and A. Stirling handed the recipient the presents, which consisted of a silver butter dish with knife, a set of silver spoons, a cheese dish with cover in glassware, and a salt and pepper box. Miss Horton, though taken by surprise, made a suitable reply, thanking her scholars for their kind gifts, and stating that in after years they would become teachers in the Sabbath School, and workers in God's cause. The teachers of the school and the secretary being present joined in many good wishes to Miss Horton, who was severing with Leeburn to go to Stratford to form a new tie in life.
