The Contested Marriage.

HAD just escaped to my chambers one winter afternoon from a heavy trial "at bar," in the King's Bench, Westminister, and was poring over a case upon which an "opinion" was urgently solicited, when my clerk entered with a letter which he had been requested to deliver by a lady, who called twice before during the day for the purpose of seeing me. Vexed at the interruption, I almost snatched the letter from the man's hand, hastily broke the seal, and to my great surprise found it was from my excellent old friend Sir Jasper Thornley of Thornley Hall, Lancashire. It ran as follows :--

'My DEAR --- The bearer of this note is a lady whom I am desirous of serving to the utmost of my ability. That she is really the widow she represents herself to be, and her son consequently heir to the magnificent estates now in possession of the Emsdales-you remember how they trip ped up my heels at the last election for the borough of -- !- I have ro moral doubt whatever; but whether her claim can be legally established realized the highest Madonna type of the story herself. It was a heartless

The lady approached with a timid, furtive step and glance, as if she were entering the den of some grim ogre, rather than the quiet study of a civilized lawyer of mature age. I

THE WOES OF THE WEAK-STOMACHED MAN

Relieved by Father Morriscy's "No. 11" Did you ever see a happy dyspeptic? Or a man cheerful over his indigestion? No wonder you didn't, for the man who cannot digest cannot enjoy very When the stomach refuses to work the whole system goes wrong, and there follows heartburn, headache, constipation, bad breath and severe Then the mind is affected: a surly-in fact, almost unbearable.

Father Morriscy gave this matter special study, and devised a tablet now known as "Father Morriscy's No. 11," which relieves the misery. Each tablet is capable of digesting 134 pounds of food—a good square meal. One tablet after eating, with a half tumbler of water, insures perfect digestion, providing reasonable care is taken to avoid foods that have been found especially disagreeable to the

Recipe for 16 Ounces of Cough Syrup

No Better Remedy at any Price

********** Make a plain syrup by mixing two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remains according to the course cough.

edy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in uiaicol and all the natural healing me elements. Other preparations ill not work in this recipe.
