Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day. LONDON, To-Day.

A Paris despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. of yesterday says: It was stated here yesterday that the German right has been entirely broken and is now being pursued by the allies. All automobiles in Paris have been requisitioned for the purpose of pursuit. Armored motor cars with mitrailleuses are also being used to pursue the retreating enemy. An official communication issued at three o'clock yesterday demonstrates unmistakably that the Germans had been surrounded in Somme Department, the French front extending further east. It is officially stated that Peronne has been re-captured. The above message has been referred to the British Official Press Bureau which, while not object-

They were taken to Moscow and presented to the Russian Agricultural Institute for distribution to the Agricultural Association, Press Bureau which, while not objecting to its publication, takes no responsibility for its correctness.

PARIS, To-Day.

A French official statement issued yesterday afternoon says: On our left wing along the River Somme the Germans attempted numerous attacks, which the allies repulsed, first on our left wing north of Somme, and between Somme and Olse, the enemy both by day and night delivering several attacks, which have, however, been repulsed. To the north of the Aisne there has been no change. Second, on the centre from Champagne and to the east of the Argonne, the enemy has restricted his activities in heavy cannonading. Between Armina and Meuse there has been slight progress on the part of our troops, who are confronted by strongly organised positions. Third, on the heights of the Meuse in the Woevre ings near Backhoffen lighthouse elevings and presented to the Russian Agricultural Institute for distribution to the Agricultural Association.

CERMAN ACTIVITY IN THE BALLIONDON, To-day.

A despatch from Petrograd says an unconfirmed telegram from Mitau in Russian Baltic Provinces, says that German warships have appeared several times since the war began in the waters of Windau, a seaport of Russia. In Courtland, on the Baltic Sea, a large fleet with transports appeared Sept. 24th but soon disappeared in a southerly direction. On Monday afternoon 18 German destroyers and cruisers came fairly near the coast and sent two boats to make soundings near Backhoffen lighthouse eleving several attacks, which have, however, been repulsed, first on our left wing Institute for distribution to the Agricultural Association.
