BOY SCOUTS' COLUMN.

WOLF CUBS ENJOY A TREAT.
The Wolf Cubs of the Gower St. Troop of Boy Scouts enjoyed a treat on Thursday afternoon. There were forty-two Cubs present at the Roll Call. After having some games which included Skin-the-snake and a Club Race between two pairs of sixes, they were served with cake and cocoa, as much as they could eat, and Wolves—especially young ones—are fairly hungry in winter. A Christmas tree was on the platform, and shortly after supper Santa Claus arrived. He explained that his legs were worn off to the knees on account of his recent hard work, and that it was breaking in on his holidays to come at all, but he didn't want to miss the Cubs. He then distributed apples and oranges to all present, and was rewarded with the Wolf Cub yell in good style. Mrs. Squires, the wife of the Premier, was a welcome visitor, and was much pleased with the way the Cubs went through their drill and Calisthenics. Akela deserves congratulations on the success of the treat. The social closed with cheers for the young ladies who served and those who contributed the refreshments, for the lady visitor, for Akela (the Cubmaster), and for the Pastor of the church.

WHAT A BOY SCOUT DID.
During the race riots in the city of Omaha, a few weeks ago, a twelve-year-old Boy Scout showed the results of his Scout training. When, for the time being, law and order had been cast aside in the community and the police officers were engaged in various parts of the city battling with gangs of men and boys seized with the mob-spirit, this twelve-year-old Scout stationed himself at a prominent street intersection and directed traffic. He stayed on the job all night and well into the morning. Traffic was tied up and congested in many parts of the city, but at this one corner it flowed along as smoothly as if an experienced traffic man was doing "point" duty. The lad in this case showed a lot more sense than most of his elders. There cannot be much wrong with the teaching which puts that kind of spirit into the boy—Canadian Boy for November.

BOY SCOUTS AND THE PRINCE.
During the visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to Calgary an unrehearsed incident took place. On September 14th when on his way to the Country Club for lunch, the Prince was held up in his car by the 2nd Calgary Troop of Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs at the entrance to the bridge over the Elbow River. Their Scoutmaster, after shaking hands with His Royal Highness, asked permission for his Troop to pull the car, in which the Prince was riding across the bridge. The Prince readily consented and so the boys took possession of it, pulled it across, and then cheered as the Prince drove away.

Train Movements.

The train which left here for Carbonara on Tuesday, reached her destination at 6.25 p.m. yesterday. In a few days it is hoped to have the branch line in operation. All available appliances are being used to keep this open. The incoming express, which was snowbound at the Gaff Topsails, started east yesterday. Passengers who left by train at 2 p.m. to-day were to connect at Briggs Junction for stations along the Heart's Content, Carbonara, and Placentia lines.

Children Entertained.

The Daughters of the Empire entertained about 200 children of our Soldiers and Sailors yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian Hall. His Excellency the Governor and Mrs. Harris were present. In addressing the children His Excellency impressed upon them the privilege of the British Empire, and expressed the hope that they would always be loyal to King and Country. Capt. Penn, R.N., impersonated Father Christmas, and presented each of the little ones with a gift. The entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed, and at the close three cheers for His Excellency, the President, members of the I. O. O. F., and Father Christmas were heartily given.

Entire Body Covered Doctors said it was Scrofula

Would my few lines help some sufferer from skin disease? A year ago I was a fright, you could not put a pin on my whole body. I was tormented beyond words. I could not sleep. I tried several doctors. They said it was scrofula. Then Mrs. Evelyn, of Brookvale, said, "Try D.D.D." It helped me and I think it will help you." I used two sample bottles and three dollar bottles. I have seen no sores or pimples for five months, thanks to your wonderful D.D.D.

JOHN M. CLARK.

Current Prices.

(Trade Review.)
PORK AND BEEF.

There is no change worth recording in Pork and Beef. By reason of the difficulties of exchange the export demand from the United States has been slack for some time. The local wholesale price of Fat Back is $56 per barrel; Short Mess, $59.50; Family, $57. In Beef, Dos Plank is $39; Packet, $37; Boneless, $36; and Plate, $30 per bbl., wholesale.

MOLASSES.
The indications are that we shall have the highest prices for molasses on record next Spring. New crop Fancy has been sold for Feb. and March shipment at $1.50 per gallon. The local quotation for 1919 stocks on hand is $1.10 per gallon in the pumcheon. In tierces, $1.15; barrels, $1.15.

SUGAR.
Output of cane is short and hundreds of orders are in since Kansas, many of which will not be filled owing to the difficulty of transport. The price to-day is $18 per hundred pounds. The next shipment to arrive from New York will be higher.

C. L. B. GRAND CONCERT.
