Ghandi—India's Saint.

Much has been printed in the press of the world of late, about the leader of India's "Weaponless Revolt" against British sovereignty over that country. "To India," writes Bernard Sexton in "Current History," "the name of Ghandi is like the morning star. He is the leader of the insurrection in spirit, a man whose title is not General, but Mahatma (Great Soul). Ghandi has invented for war a new explosive which he names soul-force." With this new weapon Ghandi intends to compel the abandonment of British influence in all India. How far he has progressed along the road which he has built, by non-co-operationist stages has not yet been clearly defined, but that his followers number millions is well known. All through India his influences have been felt and an order from him is obeyed by all those who have ranged themselves with him, and who represent resurgent India. Not since the days of the Mutiny perhaps has there been such excitement in the Indian Empire as there is over the soul-force campaign of Ghandi, a brief biographical sketch of whom may not be out of place at the present moment.

Mohandas Karamchand Ghandi, to give his full name, was born in Porbandar, India, on October 2nd, 1869, and is therefore in his 53rd year. His ancestors had held high office, for generation after generation, under the native princes. Not until he began to study law in 1888 did he know or see anything of the great world outside, but he faced unfamiliar life in London, England, with courage, and during his law course, spent much time in studying Christianity and Western civilization, returning to his native land in 1893. When an opening was offered him by a law firm in South Africa, he accepted, but upon his entry into that country he discovered that a savage prejudice existed amongst the Colonials against him, and he himself suffered many indignities. Always a man to whom conscience was first, he spent several terms in prison in South Africa for the sake of his convictions. During the Boer War, Ghandi was a loyalist, and organized the Indian Ambulance Corps, working under fire with others of his countrymen in order to demonstrate the fidelity of the Indian community to Britain and Britain's cause. Naught averted, however, to lessen the hostile spirit of the Colonials and in 1906 Ghandi and a large gathering of Indians took a solemn oath of passive resistance the tenor of which was to wage war against the British Government in order to break down the antagonism that existed in all the British Colonial possessions against Hindus. For Ghandi is one of that cult. In this he was successful.

When the Great War started, Ghandi was in London, where he organized the Indian Field Ambulance Corps. The extreme views now held by the Mahatma only came at the close of the war, when certain alleged repressive measures wrought a radical change in his sentiments and loyal as he was before, he is equally outspoken in now declaring that the British Government in India is unworthy the loyal allegiance of its former Hindu subjects. Rank sedition of course, but the Government of India do not take him seriously, merely holding him to be an idealist, and one seeking opportunities to pose as a martyr. Notwithstanding however, the attitude of apparent contempt, the Indian Administration realises to the utmost, that Ghandi has started a movement most menacing and dangerous. In speech Ghandi is direct and uncompromising. He is the chief contributor to Young India, the organ and mouthpiece of the Nationalists. Here is an extract from one of his articles dated November 21, 1921:

"As a non-co-operator I neither own nor disown George as my King. I have dissociated myself from the system administered under the King's name. I keep myself free to give allegiance to him if I can attain my full growth in his kingdom, and can secure full redress of the Khalifate and Punjab wrongs."

Holding that civil disobedience, if entered upon prayerfully is a sacrifice of selfish interests for the sake of the motherland, Ghandi has impressed his followers with some of the spirit animating himself, and directing his weaponless campaign. As a driving force he is one to be reckoned with, and British rule in India cannot afford to permit itself to be threatened even by such an idealist as Ghandi is represented to be. There is too much at stake.

Radio From "Sisto."

Hon. Tasker Cook received a radio message, via Cape Race this morning from the S.S. Sisto, giving her position as 46.53 N., 49.15 W., at 8 a.m. The message stated that the ship was apparently ice free and was making eastward.

Stormy on Line.

It was very stormy all over the line this morning. There was not much wind, but heavy snow falls and drift. No trains were moving, but the rotary plows were working. The Brigus section of the line is not yet cleared and it will probably be several days before any trains will be able to move. The snow has frozen solidly over the rails in many places. The average temperature along the line today was 5 degrees.

N. F. Poultry Association.

THIRD ANNUAL DINNER—PRESENTATION TO HONORARY PRESIDENT.

The third annual dinner of the N.F. Poultry Association was held at Wood's West End Restaurant, last night. H. W. LeMessurier, Esq., C.M.G. Honorary President occupied the chair, the guests of the evening being the Prime Minister, Sir R. A. Squires, the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. Dr. Campbell, Rev. A. Clayton, Messrs J. B. Gillatt (Bell Island) and C. T. James. At 8.30 all sat down. (Pres.) discussed the following menu, furnished by Mr. W. E. Sterling and his capable assistants, and served with celerity and attention to the diners:

SUPPER.
Cream of Tomato.
ROAST.
Roast Chicken with Baked Ham.
VEGETABLES.
Green peas.
Riced Potatoes.

A particularly pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of an address and a gold mounted umbrella to the veteran Honorary President, Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, marking the golden jubilee of his marriage. Mr. G. R. Williams made a capital speech in calling upon the Secretary to read the address, and when the Treasurer, made the presentation, the applause was deafening testifying to the appreciation and regard all have for the gentleman thus honored. The address which is annexed was replied to by the recipient, after which all sang "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Dear Mr. LeMessurier.—On the auspicious occasion of this your 50th Anniversary of wedded life, we the members of the Newfoundland Poultry Association, take occasion to extend to you and Mrs. LeMessurier our hearty congratulations and to offer you our best wishes, that you may spend many years to enjoy each other's society.

We feel that it must be a source of pleasure to you to know that for a quarter of a century you have filled such a prominent position amongst us, with credit and the respect of all. It is with equal pleasure we testify to the good work you have done on behalf of this Association, retiring this year from active service only owing to yourself thinking that a younger man should take up the work.

As a token of our esteem and goodwill for you we ask your acceptance of the accompanying Umbrella, and we renew the expression of our hope that you and your estimable wife may be blessed with many years of companionship.

On behalf of this Association:—
GEO. R. WILLIAMS, President.
W. R. BUTLER, Treasurer.
W. D. MCCARTER, Secretary.

The singing of Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King, brought to a conclusion one of the jolliest and happiest functions of the season. Good fellowship prevailed, camaraderie was existent and the members of the Newfoundland Poultry Association may well be pleased over the success of their third annual dinner.

Our Local Peppys.

HIS DIARY.
February 23rd.—To the office of the Aerial Survey Company, and find there Hon. Dr. Barnes, Mr. P. Archibald and Rev. Dr. Whelan, and they are trying clothes, and preparing to leave by air coach for Harbor Grace. I did wish them a good trip and did take leave of them. The air coach did fly to Harbor Grace and so back to St. John's, with other passengers, and the whole journey did take but 90 minutes. In the afternoon, to the club and play at billiards with Mr. Fox. I make a ten-shot, at which all make a mighty loud cheer, and did press me, that I give them cigars. But I tell them how, with the cost of my wife's clothes, and the dearth of coal, it is not in my power to pay for them.

McMurdo's Store News.

FRIDAY, Feb. 24.
One of the quickest ways to cure a cold in the head is to prevent it from getting down upon the chest is by the timely use of Preston's Catarrh Balm which is designed for just this purpose, and which, if used at the beginning of the attack may be trusted to cut it short and bring speedy relief. If used in later stages it will at least mitigate the attack and help to clear up the symptoms. Price 40 cents.
Persons who are subject to catarrh of the head and throat in recurring attacks, often derive great benefit from the use of a good tonic such as McMurdo's Nutritive Hypophosphites or Gault's Cod Liver Compound either of which remedies is highly eligible. Price (Hypophosphites) 50c; (Gault's Compound) $1 a bottle.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Michael and Thomas Hartley and Mrs. John Hartley wish to thank Dr. H. Randall, Sisters Oakley and Moores, and the Nurses of the Sanatorium for their kindness to their late Sister Margaret, who passed away a short while ago; also the kind friends who visited her during her illness, especially Father Hartley, who administered the last rites, Mrs. Wall who conveyed the body to town, where it was taken in charge by Mr. P. Hartley, who accompanied it to Trepanure; to His Lordship Bishop Renout, Fathers O'Flaherty and Wilson, and all other friends who sent messages of sympathy our sincere thanks are due.—adv.

C. L. B. Parade.

Last night's parade of the C.L.B. Cadets was very well attended, despite the extreme cold. Satisfactory work was done. The Companies carried on under their C.O.'s and Lieutenants. Hunt and Perla took the recruits, of which there is a very large number. All parades so far this winter have been well attended, and the lads are making great interest in their work. The annual dinner of the Warrant and N.C.O.'s Mess was held this week and the Athletic Association held a meeting last night. The school is progressing under Lieut. Ash.

Sealing Captains Coming

A message has been received stating that Capt. Wm. Winsor, Bishop and Kne have arrived at Gumbo on the way here to join their ships. The journey from Westville, a distance of some thirty-five miles, had to be made overland. The matter of their getting to the city is being arranged and a train from here will likely go out to bring them and their members of their crews who are with them, to the city. It is not probable that the majority of the Westville and Greenspond men will leave their homes before Monday.

MISS T. POWER.

Music Studio 59 Queen's Road at March 8th. feb24,6,1,12

KYLE IN ICE.—S.S. Kyle left Port aux Basques yesterday for Loughboro, and is due there some time to-day. A message received early this morning stated that the south east gale was raging and there was thick snow. The ice was heavy and the ship was making little progress. A later message stated that the swell was holding, and the ice breaking up. The Kyle was then making good progress. She will probably leave Loughboro late to-night for this port via Port aux Basques.

Fire at Norris' Arm.

EAST END CASH STORE DESTROYED.

Special to Evening Telegram.
NORRIS ARM, To-day.

The unoccupied premises of the East End Cash Store and also their winter stock of provisions were destroyed by fire last night. The cause of the fire is unknown. We understand that the East End Cash Store was owned by Mr. L. A. Basha and only partly insured. The Phoenix Fire Insurance Company, however, carried $4,000 on the premises. The loss to Mr. Basha is a heavy one as a large stock of provisions for the winter trade were stored on the premises.

There is a big sale of Toilet Requisites at BISHOP'S to-day. This sale comes at a most opportune time as it places much required Cold Creams, etc., within everybody's reach at lower prices than in some instances the cost of manufacture. Included are: Mary Garden Tooth Paste, Vinolia Hair Wash, Face Powder, Cold Cream, Tooth Paste, Tooth Powder and Brilliantine; Mavis Brilliantine, Djerkins Cold Cream, Cutex Cold Cream, Tailors' Talcum, Eau-de-Cologne, Luxol Toilet Water and Foot Powder, at BISHOP'S Show-room.
