Anxious Mother-I think that it's mean of the aldermen not to support Ald. Matthews in his sand pit scheme I hear that Ald. Matthews wants the council to grant a sum of money to make an inclosure in the park and put a lot of sand there for the children to play in. I think it would be an excellent idea, for then we mothers could take our children there on our way down town, and lock them in and they would be all right until we got back Now if the other aldermen would only support Ald. Matthews instead of attributing personal motives to him, if they only had grit enough to do this, we would get the sand. "Dig in, Dick."

Mr. F. B. Hope, of Toronto-I like to get back to London. When I left here three years ago to travel for a Montreal house, I thought London never looked so fine. I had lived here eight years and had got to like it as I never liked any other place. What I think is best about London is that it is an ideal "home" city; it is not so Buffalo, April 2.-The Evening Times large that friends cannot see one another easily, while it is in the fore-front with improvements that make it when no one is present, an immense toad comes crawling before the altar, where it kneels and prays, weeping bitterly. No one ever hurts a toad in the Tyrol, for the population is imbued with the belief that toads are for the most part good Christians who have made vows to go on pilgrimages, and who have died without fulfilling their pledges. So the poor creatures go hopping about astray, bewildered and perplexed, striving to find their way to shrines which perchance have long ceased to exist.
