

WANTED!

A young gentleman or lady Bookkeeper and Stenographer for our office, one who can figure accurately and quickly, and can type their notes correctly. How often do you get such an ad? Can you fill the bill? The

F. C. B. C.
(Y. M. C. A. - London, Ont.)
are sending out just such material every week. Write us.
J. W. WESTERVELT, Principal.

Enlarged Ideas.

We've long had it in our mind to do for the ladies of London and the West as we have been doing for the gentlemen—make at moderate prices the most perfect fitting and up-to-date tailored garments possible. In our new store we have complete and separate apartments for the ladies, and as a forerunner of your custom we want you to inspect our stock and appointments.

O. LABELLE.
ODDFELLOWS' BLOCK CORNER
SPECIAL GUN SALE

We have just received a new lot of guns, and are making the following special prices for February:
$10.00 Guns for $8.00
$12.00 Guns for $9.00
$14.00 Guns for $10.00
$16.00 Guns for $11.00
A limited number of these.
If you want a gun this is your opportunity.
BROCK'S GUNSTORE
192 Dundas street, London, Ontario.

Photo Supplies

Everything for the Photographer.
W. A. McKENZIE.
Opposite City Hall, Upstairs.

R. K. COWAN,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.,
County Buildings, next Court House, London.

Try Aetna Baking Powder.

Manufactured by Marshall Bros. & Co.
17 Dundas street. Rising quality cannot be surpassed.

W. J. SMITH & SONS

Undertakers and Embalmers,
113 Dundas St. Phone 586. Open day and night. Residence on premises.

J. T. Stephenson,

UNDERTAKER.
Night calls promptly attended to.
Residence on the premises.
194 Dundas Street. Phone 459.

GLASSES CAN'T BE FITTED

AS THEY SHOULD BE
Until the exact trouble is known, and the trouble can be known until the eyes have been examined scientifically.
We are experts in this line. Call and see us.

C. H. WALLACE,

Jeweler and Optician,
402 Talbot Street, Opposite City Hotel.
Watch given over best attention.

London Conservatory of Music and School of Elocution Now Open. Pupils May Enter at Any Time.

—Rev. W. H. Scott, of this city, will preach his first sermon as pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, Port Huron, next Sunday.

Private Walter Worwick, of No. 1 Company, R. C. R., leaves this afternoon on a three months' sick furlough, which he will spend in England.

—Rev. F. Fulton Irwin, of the Westminster circuit, has accepted a cordial and unanimous invitation to return to his present charge for next year.

Daisy Flour

can be relied upon. It never varies. It surpasses all other flours sold in London.

Buy It—Your Grocer Has It.

The Maple Leaf Label is on every tin of

COWAN'S

PERFECTION
COCOA.

It is not only "Made in Canada," but it is absolutely the best.

THE COWAN CO., LTD., TORONTO.

Hungarian peasants have a superstition that fire kindled by lightning can only be extinguished by milk, and owing to their refusal to use water a barn with a farmer's whole crop has been burnt in one of the provinces.

IT MAY BE only a trifling cold, but neglect it and it will fasten its fangs in your lungs, and you will soon be carried to an untimely grave. In this country we have sudden changes, and we cannot avoid them, but we can effect a cure by using Bick's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that has never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest.

CUTLERY SALE

Big Cut in Carvers.

Best quality English steel, horn handles, hand-forged blades.

$1.25 set, now $1.00

$1.50 set, now $1.25

$2.00 set, now $1.50

Others at 50c, 75c and 90c

CARVERS, IN SATIN-LINED CASE.

$2.50 three-piece set, now $2.10

$3.25 three-piece set, now $2.80

$4.00 three-piece set, now $3.50

$5.00 three-piece set, now $4.25

Sign of

GURD'S The Big Gun.

185 Dundas Street.

Block.

PHONE 596.

TALLY CARDS

For Whist and Euchre.

INVITATION CARDS

For Afternoon Teas.

JOHN MILLS'

BOOK STORE.

Phone 1665, 308 Richmond Street.

Handsone Designs

IN CUT GLASS.

What do you think of a nine-inch berry bowl for $6.00? That is a leader among the many beautiful articles in our cut glass stock.

THOS. GILLEAN,

402 Richmond St.

HIGHEST GRADE

Cannel Coal

for grates

JUST ARRIVED.

HN MANN & SONS,

401 Clarence St.

425 York St.

Phone 470.

The proper way to keep your health good is to eat Johnston Bros' XXXX wholesome bread. It is a builder.

Call a driver, or ask at groceries.

JOHNSTON BROS. Phone 818.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Miss Lizzie Lee, of Orangeville, is the guest of Mrs. Lowry, Horton street.

—Bugler Martin, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Toronto, is spending a few days in the city.

—Miss Polly Leigh, of this city, is visiting Mrs. H. J. Wilcox and Miss Gertrude M. Boyce, of Port Huron.

—Miss Margaret Sinclair, daughter of Dr. Sinclair, Lobo, has been visiting at her cousin's, Mrs. J. McNab, 332 King street, city.

—Rev. W. H. Scott, of this city, will preach his first sermon as pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, Port Huron, next Sunday.

—Private Walter Worwick, of No. 1 Company, R. C. R., leaves this afternoon on a three months' sick furlough, which he will spend in England.

—Rev. F. Fulton Irwin, of the Westminster circuit, has accepted a cordial and unanimous invitation to return to his present charge for next year.

—Shortly before 9 o'clock last night one of the chimneys at the McEvoys' down-town factory caught fire. The firemen were called, but their services were not needed. No damage was done.

TAKEN OVER THE COMMAND.

Col. Buchanan, the newly-appointed commanding officer for military district No. 3, with headquarters at Kingston, has commenced his duties.

AT HOME.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. George's Church, London Junction, gave an "At Home" last evening in the church. An interesting and varied programme of music, recitations and lantern views was rendered, refreshments being also served.

AT ST. PAUL'S TONIGHT.

The installation of dean, archdeacons and canons at St. Paul's Cathedral tonight will no doubt attract a large congregation, as it is some years since this interesting ceremony took place here.

The service will be conducted by Rev. Prof. Cody, of Toronto, Rev. Mr. Baldwin, of Montreal, who was announced to preach, being ill.

TAKEN TO ST. CATHARINES.

The remains of the late Wm. F. Green were taken to St. Catharines for interment yesterday. Very Rev. Dean Davis, who conducted the service at the house, Mr. A. A. Booker, and the two sons of the deceased, accompanied the remains there. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Paul, George Burns, Frank E. Leonard, Charles Hunt, John M. Dillon and A. A. Booker.

ROUGH TIME IN BRUCE.

Lieut.-Col. A. E. Belcher, of Southampton, Conservative candidate for North Bruce, was in the city for a few days, the guest of his brother, T. Z. Belcher, the York Street Mission evangelist. Col. Belcher says that an unprecedented time has been experienced in Bruce with snow blockades on to send you Hamilton's Age or Porter. So different, so much better than other kinds, Age, flavor and purity.

Tell Your Dealer . .

KENT BREWERY.

At no former season have we shown so many useful novelties made in Sterling Silver, and never in this city were such goods sold so reasonably. Sterling Silver will outwear the average life, and still be serviceable.

WARD, THE JEWELER,

374 Richmond Street.

STERLING NOVELTIES

At no former season have we shown so many useful novelties made in Sterling Silver, and never in this city were such goods sold so reasonably. Sterling Silver will outwear the average life, and still be serviceable.

WARD, THE JEWELER,

374 Richmond Street.

How Much Money

are you going to save this year?

Where are you going to deposit it? With

The Canadian

Savings & Loan Co.

Assets $2,250,000.00

Reserve $300,000.00

Office—129-132

M. E. ROWLAND, Manager.

Richmond Street.

the railways, and impassable roads; that many lumber camps had to suspend operations owing to the depth of snow, and that it was impossible for the farmers to draw wood to the towns, and in consequence of which there has been a scarcity of fuel, and some suffering from the cold.

GIFT TO MRS. BUCHAN.

The attached officers at Stanley Barracks, Toronto, made a presentation the other day to Mrs. Buchan, wife of Col. Buchan, formerly of this city, of a handsome set of silver brushes, combs and mirrors. Col. Buchan has gone Kingston.

ASH WEDNESDAY.

Ash Wednesday was marked by Lenten services in the Scotch and Anglican Churches of the city yesterday.

In St. Paul's Cathedral, Rev. Canon Dann officiated, and the communion service was read. There was a large congregation present. In St. B. Andrew's, K. C. and H. Murray's Church, mass was celebrated, by Rev. Fathers Aylward and McKee respectively, ashes being also blessed and distributed to the faithful.

In the evening service were also held in both churches, and the ashes were again distributed.

McWILLIAM VS. McWILLIAM.

Judgment has been handed down by Judge Teetzel, at Berlin, in the suit of McWilliam vs. McWilliam, an action tried without a jury, to recover possession of 100 acres in the township of Waterloo, free from incumbrances, and for an account and redemption if necessary. Defendant is the son of John McWilliam, the plaintiff's brother, and is sued both personally and as executrix of her husband's will. Defendant pleaded the statute of limitations as a bar to the action, and that defendant had not acquired a title by virtue of the statute of limitations, and plaintiff was entitled to possession. Evans, the plaintiff, and the estate. No costs up to judgment. Further directions and subsequent costs reserved. A. B. Aylesworth, K. C., and H. Murray's, for plaintiff; J. Magee, K. C., and A. G. Chisholm, London, for defendant.

HAD SUCCESS IN LONDON

New York Firm of Douglas, Lacey & Co. Well Represented Here.

The financial statement appears elsewhere in this issue of the firm of Douglas, Lacey & Co., New York, whose London representative is Mr. Joseph Beech, of 379 Princess avenue. This well-known firm of bankers and brokers are now represented in nearly all the cities of the United States and Canada, and their business in London has greatly increased. In fact, he did more business for them in London, than any of the other Canadian agencies, and on this account was presented by the firm with a handsome watch. Mr. Beech is prepared to call on any person desiring information regarding the methods of this firm, which have been so successful. It may be mentioned here that Douglas, Lacey & Co. carry a trust fund for the protection of their customers, none of whose investments have been lost, and they are absolutely protected by this fund. In over four years of their business career not one loss has ever been sustained by a customer.

TO REMAIN ANOTHER YEAR

Centennial Church Board Invites Rev. A. H. Goring.

At the regular meeting of the Centennial Methodist Church, quarterly board, held on Tuesday night, Feb. 15, the following resolution was unanimously carried: "That this board take great pleasure in expressing its sincere appreciation of the energetic and successful labors of the pastor, Rev. A. H. Goring, B. A., during the past year, and that they extend a most cordial and unanimous invitation to him to return for another year, subject to the approval of the stationing committee."

Pins for London

Collegiate Institute Scholars

In Solid Silver and Plate, enamelled with the Collegiate Colors, for 250 and 350.

WILLMOT'S.

317 1/2 Dundas St.

Food Value. . .

"Parnell-Dean's Homemade Bread" is highest in food that supplies the greatest nourishing properties. Made from the best of Manitoba wheat flour. Daily delivery. Write or Phone.

THE PARNELL-DEAN STEAM BAKING CO.,

Limited.

Phone 929. 75 and 77 Bruce St., City.

A new message each day—watch for it.

GOOD HEALTH.

Powerful ventilating fans mean good health for our workpeople, and for those who wear the work they do. The highest standard of health is the care of your lungs. A feature of the FOREST PROCESS.

Phone 1,048, or postal card will bring one of our white wagons.

FOREST CITY LAUNDRY.

"The Careful Laundry," 72-74 King Street.

HAT SALE

Saturday, Feb. 2, we commence OUR MONSTER HAT SALE. Any of our $5.00 hats worth up to $3.00, at, from,

75c to $1.00

Spittal, Sabine & Co.

SOUTH LONDON LIBERAL CLUB

FORMALLY OPENED LAST NIGHT

Enthusiastic Gathering of the Workers at Trebilcock's Hall.

Hon. C. S. Hyman Addresses His New Constituents.

Deals With Some Interesting Questions—Speeches by Other Prominent Liberals.

The formal opening of the South London Liberal Club took place last evening, and the names of the club in Trebilcock's Hall were taken to the utmost to contain the large number who were in attendance. The turnout of the stalwarts of South London was large, and they were reinforced by many prominent members of the party from the city proper.

President William Gerry occupied the chair, and in calling the meeting to order announced that the club was not a political one, but that the evening would be spent in a social way, but, nevertheless, there were many present who were capable of making speeches, and they were called upon by the enthusiastic gathering.

Among the prominent Liberals present were Hon. Charles S. Hyman, ex-Mayor Rumball, Mr. John M. McEvoy and Ald. Greenleaf.

As usual, Hon. Hyman's appearance was marked by a great outburst of applause, and it appeared to give the people of South London an interest in the club, and to know that they were now his constituents, and would be in a position to vote for him when next he stood himself in the hands of the people.

There was no regular programme carried out, the audience merely calling for those whom they desired to speak. Hon. Mr. Hyman's name was called repeatedly, but he good naturedly held back, and when he did appear, he was greeted with a great ovation.

During the evening lunch and coffee were served, through the kindness of Ald. Gerry, and when the hour of the evening had passed, all went away pleased with the club's opening night.

PRESIDENT GERRY.

President Gerry occupied the chair, and in calling the meeting to order announced that the club was not a political one, but that the evening would be spent in a social way, but, nevertheless, there were many present who were capable of making speeches, and they were called upon by the enthusiastic gathering.

Among the prominent Liberals present were Hon. Charles S. Hyman, ex-Mayor Rumball, Mr. John M. McEvoy and Ald. Greenleaf.

As usual, Hon. Hyman's appearance was marked by a great outburst of applause, and it appeared to give the people of South London an interest in the club, and to know that they were now his constituents, and would be in a position to vote for him when next he stood himself in the hands of the people.

There was no regular programme carried out, the audience merely calling for those whom they desired to speak. Hon. Mr. Hyman's name was called repeatedly, but he good naturedly held back, and when he did appear, he was greeted with a great ovation.

During the evening lunch and coffee were served, through the kindness of Ald. Gerry, and when the hour of the evening had passed, all went away pleased with the club's opening night.

MR. JOHN M. McEVY.

Mr. John M. McEvoy was the next speaker, and he took the platform and after the routine business of the club had been disposed of, made a few remarks. He said that in the past, the Liberal Club had been a place of great work for the party, and were prepared to do so when called upon again. But despite the opposition, he had been applied to the club by its enemies, the Liberals of South London had done anything to be ashamed of, and all they had done to elect their candidates was above board. He would guarantee that after the next year, the Liberal Club would be fully recognized by the entire party, and it would be found that the club had done nothing to be ashamed of, and all they had done to elect their candidates was above board. He would guarantee that after the next year, the Liberal Club would be fully recognized by the entire party, and it would be found that the club had done nothing to be ashamed of, and all they had done to elect their candidates was above board.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of. He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.

He then referred to the honor which had been conferred upon him, Mr. Hyman, and said that it was an honor which he did not feel that he was worthy of.