THE LONDON ADVERTISER.

WAS A GREAT SUFFERER FOR FIVE YEARS FROM DYSPEPSIA.

Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent troubles of civilized life, and thousands of people suffer untold agony after every meal, for nearly everything that enters a weak dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant.

The long train of distressing symptoms, which render life a burden to the victim of dyspepsia, may be promptly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mr. Wm. J. Boyne, Lepreau, N.B., writes: "I thought I would write and tell you of the good Burdock Blood Bitters has done me and also tell you how thankful I am."

"For five years I had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and tried different doctors and proprietary medicines, but could get no relief. One day a friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have much faith in it, but I thought I would give it a trial. To-day I am completely cured, and I will always recommend it."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for about thirty-five years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co.

BRITISH CABINET CRISIS FEARED

Sir Edward to Retire From the Foreign Secretaryship Is the London Rumor.

MR. BRYCE MAY SUCCEED

Haldane and McKenna May Also Resign Following Explanation—The Mixup With the Germans.

London, Nov. 23.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey, secretary for foreign affairs, will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly-awaited exposition on foreign relations on Nov. 27 in the House of Commons, and that Mr. Jas. Bryce, ambassador to the United States, will succeed him.

The resignation of the foreign secretary will almost certainly be handed to the prime minister should any lack of confidence be shown in his policy during the debate which will follow his statement on Monday.

Sir Edward Grey, who during the earlier years of his occupancy of the foreign office received the almost unanimous support of all parties, has recently been the object of continuous attack, not from the Opposition, but by members of his own party, or, rather, the extreme Radical element in that party. The secrecy with which diplomatic negotiations have been carried on has aroused the ire of the Radicals, who latterly have received some support from the more moderate Liberals. The disclosures regarding the Anglo-German conversations with respect to Morocco, and the statements that these two countries were on the verge of war, have given the Radicals another opening, and they are now, it is understood, pressing for the retirement of Sir Edward, declaring: "We won't be drawn into war without knowing the reason why."

The Radicals favor an Anglo-German understanding, and accuse Sir Edward Grey of halting their efforts in this direction, either by his own design or through the influence of anti-German officials in the foreign office. Should Sir Edward resign, Viscount Haldane, secretary for war, and Mr. Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, will likely follow him.

Bryce May Succeed.
Mr. James Bryce, is the man thought most likely to be his successor, as Mr. Bryce would be supported by the entire party, as he was when the Unionists attacked him for the part he took in the negotiations on the subject of reciprocity between Canada and the United States.

By a tacit understanding the Unionist leaders support the Government's foreign policy, or at least refrain from criticizing it. They like the moderate Liberals, argue: Why turn a brilliant diplomatic victory into defeat by sacrificing the victor in order to secure the goodwill of vanquished Germans?

Lobby Rumors.
The lobby is full of rumors of other troubles besetting the Government. It is said in Unionist quarters that the cabinet is not able to satisfy John Redmond's home rule demands, which have increased through fear of the growing O'Brien strength in Ireland, and the Laborites are dissatisfied with the findings of the royal commission last August with respect to the railway strike. They blame the cabinet for failure to secure recognition of the unions.

The prime minister, it is true, is under moral obligations to avoid a crisis during the King's absence, but it may be beyond his power to do so.

MAY CARRY CASE TO PRIVY COUNCIL

Farmers' Bank Shareholders Say They Will Not Pay the Double Liability.

NESBITT WOULD RETURN

Reported That He Is in the West and Recently Sent Agent to Toronto to Smooth Out Matters.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Nov. 24.—"The shareholders of the Farmers' Bank will carry the matter to the Privy Council before they will pay their double liability. They have already raised 5 per cent of the money to do it."

This was the statement made by Mr. I. E. Weldon, of Windsor, counsel for the Farmers' Bank Relief Association, which, together with the Farmers' Bank Defence League, will tomorrow wait on the Minister of Finance to ask for relief for shareholders and depositors in the defunct Farmers' Bank. The first named association represents the depositors and the second the shareholders.

That Dr. Beattie Nesbitt was somewhere in the west, and that an agent of his had been in Toronto a few days ago endeavoring to smooth the way for his return, was another statement made by one of the executive of the relief association. The latter are gathering in the Windsor Hotel, representatives from the 27 branches of the bank to be present. Tomorrow morning at 9:30 a deputation will wait upon the Government and present a

An Appeal to Wives

You know the terrible affliction that comes to many homes from the result of a drinking husband or son. You know of the money wasted on "Dink" that is needed in the home to purchase food and clothing. Orrine has saved thousands of drinking men. It is a home treatment and can be given secretly or taken voluntarily. Put up in two forms, powder or pills. Your money will be returned if after a trial it has failed to benefit. Costs but $1 a box—a mere trifle when compared with the amount a drinking man will spend in a day for liquor. Come in and get a free booklet and let us tell you of the good ORRINE is doing. W. T. Toronto, Nov. 24.—More Sze Chuen missionaries have arrived at Shanghai. A cablegram from Shanghai was received at the Methodist mission board rooms yesterday stating that the following refugees, of whom nothing had been heard for several weeks, had reached that city from the city of Chung King. They are: Dr. W. D. Ferguson and family, Rev. E. C. Wilford and wife, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Battdorf. It is not likely that these will come home on furlough, as their terms will not be up for several years yet.

Beauty

is more than skin-deep—and cosmetics and other artificial applications to the skin will not restore personal comeliness.

It is a recognized fact that the pale-faced, anaemic girls in our large cities owe their ashen paleness to poor blood.

WILSON'S INVALIDS PORT

(A la Quina du Pérou)

eradicates all poisonous accumulations, purifies and nourishes the blood, restoring healthy action to the skin by sending a supply of rich red blood to the cheeks, thus giving them the flush of health. By its action on the system, it causes the pores to open, the impurities to pass off, and the skin is made soft, smooth and velvety. Replace that sickly paleness by the rosy hues of health—take Wilson's Invalids' Port.

Dr. J. M. BEAUSOLEIL, President of the Canadian Medical Association, says:
"I know and recommend your excellent tonic 'Wilson's Invalids' Port.' I prescribe it to young persons and to debilitated women, and the result is most satisfactory. I congratulate you for having filled with the greatest of care a time-honored prescription, which is approved by the Medical Profession."
I heartily wish you all the success you deserve.
Yours truly,
J. M. Beausoleil
