BAD FIRST INNING LOSES GAME DESPITE EFFORTS TO REDEEM

Fitzpatrick Made a Poor Start, But Twirled Great Ball During Rest of the Game-Renfer Held Locals to Six Scattered Hits and Two Runs was a real nice game this time, and only for a bad first inning, the Maroons might have had to work a little harder for the win. In this session the Cookies grabbed off a trio of counters which would have been sufficient to have won the game been sufficient to have won the game had they failed to score any more. Heaving in the interest of the enemy was a rangy chap named Renfer. He had a varied assortment which the Indians found difficult to decipher in the pinches, and in only one inning did he have any trouble. In the fifth the Bowermanites got to him for two hits, which, combined with Callahan's error, brought in the only two runs the locals secured. In the other sessions, they failed to get a man past second base. past second base.

"FITZ" STARTED BAD.

Speer gathered in a few fouls. had he been able to come through the first inning unscathed, he might have earned the gratitude of the home folks by putting a crimp into Mr. Cook's streak. Fitzpatrick in the joust after he led on him, a clean drive to right being his with a nice bunt down the first base line, was nowhere.

The second heat furnished a great stretch drive. All the horses loafed the first half, and when they started on the first half very fast, but The Eel was a handy winner.

In the third heat, the two fast laddies started out together, and went the fast and out It seems as though the Senators are bound to score in the opening spasm In each of the games played here this week they have broken into the run column right at the start, and it has been an uphill climb for the locals each time. Burke fired the opening shot on Mr. Fitzpatrick in the joust after he had two strikes and three balls called on him, a clean drive to right being his and two strikes and three bans called on hin, a clean drive to right being his initial effort. Mr. Rowe followed with a nice bunt down the first base line, and Fitzpatrick fell all over himself trying to field it in time. Mr. Dolan died on a sacrifice, but Robertson pummelled the pellet to left, and Burke ambled in. Schwind then poked a single to centre and Rowe scored. Callahan shoved by a liber to be seen the same of the contract of the same of his elbow in the way of the flying sphere and went to first. Louden grounded to Fox, who threw high to Speer to catch Robertson, the latter being safe. Hopper grounded out to Lindeburn.

Mr. Renfer's assortment, but in the reached first base and none got any first four sessions their total efforts consisted of three scattered hits and indians to reach the initial sack and four men left on bases, mostly on die there.

Then the fatal fifth hove into sight. To start the hoodoo working, Rowe bingled a lone pillow affair to right, bingled a lone pillow affair to right, and Mr. Dolan peeved the populace with a mad thrust to deep centre, which enabled him to reach third before the ball was chased back to the infield, Mr. Rowe meanwhile seeking a cool spot on the bench. Robertson aviated out to Lindeburn, but Schwind collided with the pill for a drive to right and Dolan manoeuvred home. The result of the free-for-all vace at queen's Park yesterday afternoon was not as the big crowd wished, but it demonstrated that on form, Hall B., Jr., the Sebringville pacer, has something on The Eel, the Grey Gost, that won so many hard-fought races for Danny Mr. L. Cook's porch climbers pilfered another game from Mr. Bowerman's pennant chasers at the local ball yard yesterday, by the modest score of 5 to 2. It was a real nice game this time, and only for a bad first inning, the Maroons might have the Maroons might have the bronk of the free-for-all was the magnet that attracted harness lovers to the meet on liked. Silver Joe and Nettie Ethan had quite a battle for second place, the honors going to the Toronto mare.

The result of the free-for-all vace at the brush necessary to keep up with the brush necessary to kee 2 to 1. The game was brilliantly played by both teams, the locals bunching hits in the sixth inning and scoring 2 runs. Garlow, first up, hit a three-bagger along the right foul line, Murphy grounded out. Crystal fanned, Keenan slammed one to deep centre and was perched on third when the ball was returned. He scored on a poor throw to the plate. That inning ended the scoring. In the third the visitors scored their only run. Gurney hit to deep right, the ball taking a bad bound over Cristal's head. He went to third. On a double steal, Killilea threw wild to the plate and Gurney scored. That ended the fun, as Garlow was invincible for the balance of the game. WITH TECUMSEHS ON THE WARPATH

The Ottawa team is composed of some ing one game at Hamilton. He wants to come back, and he will likely be given another change. break up a game any minute.

Gilhooley's work during the last two games has not been up to the standard the advance notices would have you believe. This boy, however, will improve us he knows how to deliver the goods. Powell's work on the initial corner can hardly be improved upon. The big fellow is getting everything that comes his way, airhough at present he is suffering a dight slump with the willow. Ward, London's new pitcher, was in uniform, and Manager Bowerman had him working out before the game. Had Pitzpatrick blown up he would have been sent in to stop the Senators.

Fitzpatrick was hitting the ball in great style yesterday. He was the only man on the team to get two hits. It looked like a bad move to take him out and substitute. Brant as a pinch hitter in the Sam Kennedy, Cleveland American League acout, was present in the grand-stend. He is taking a look at Hynes, Neale and Gilhooley. He was impressed with Neale's fielding, and will attend oday's game to get a line on Hynes.

THE NATIONAL BOWL ING ALLEYS offer a Cash Prize for the best five-pin score. Come in and sak about it. The six high score men roll off for the prize, Benny Speer played a great game yesterday. Only one man stole second on him, his pegging to second being great. His catches of two foul flys were of the sensational variety, and it was he who began the run-getting for the Indians.

Neale is getting to be a great favorite with the crowd, and he is loudly clapped every time he catches a fly. It is to be hoped the fans won't spoil the left-fielder by turning his head. A good many good ball players go bad when they begin to suffer from swelled head.

Renfer's hit in the fourth inning broke the bat he was using and one of the splinters cut a gash in his hand. It both-ered him for a time after that.

The fifth inning was once again fatal for the Indians. If the locals can pass this session without a run being scored on them, they generally manage to win.

Ward, the new heaver, has lo's or steam and good control. He also seems to have a number of good curves, and sithough a slightly built fellow appears as though he might be a good one. Fox had a great day at third bace. His catch of Hopped's foul was a preits place of work. This boy can also be depended upon for a bit, and he looks better every
