Sir James Says Resolution Will Next Session.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, Nov. 3 .- Sir James Whitney stated today that in all probability a resolution will be brought into the Legislature at the coming session to increase the salary of the lieutenantgovernor of Ontario. While the amount valued at $7,000, and the rents of other Sunday afternoon from the namily is not yet fixed, it is understood it real estate until the youngest child residence, 573 Oxford street, to Mount will be raised from $10,000 to $20,000, Pleasant Cemetery. The funeral was and even this figure is much below largely attended, particularly by the the amount which any incumbent of

A resolution will also be brought in changing the name of the office from that of "lieutenant-governor" to that of "governor." The latter is considered to be more dignified and distinctly more modern.

Just what effect the discussion on redistribution will have is an unknown quantity. Sir James states that the representation of Nova Scotia in the Dominion House was very much considered with a view to solving the problem of how the Maritime inces are to retain their present representation with a decreased population No conclusion was arrived at, as any change there will effect the other provinces in more ways than one. During the new session a resolution will be brought into the Legislature unde: which the Ontario provincial securities will be placed on the lists in which the courts permit the investment of trust funds. Ontario has never been able to get on this list. H.V. MEREDITH IS HEAD OF BANK OF MONTREAL
