The Sailors, however, jumped into the ead by getting three over in the fourth. Dawson was hit by a pitched ball, Gygli

He took third on McNellis' infield out, and came home when Hadley broke it up by singling through the box. Wiltse's one-handed catch of a terrific liner, in the ninth, was probably the feature of many circus plays. McNellis, the Saints' new second baseman, had a big day, accepting about dozen chances without a mishap.

GAME FROM PHILLIES

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.-A batting rally by Pittsburg in the eighth inning, caused the defeat of Philadelphia today the score being 7 to 5. In that inning both the visitors' pinch hitters made good, Hyatt's single sending in one run, and Jim Kelly's double driving in two more. One of Luderus' bome runs was a drive to deep center which stuck on a ledge of the wall several feet over Joe Kelly's head, while the other cleared the right center field fence. Byrne had his left hand hurt trying to stop a grounder off Mitchell's bat and was forced to leave the game. Score:
