London Advertiser Member Audit Bureau of Circulation.

MORNING EDITION.
Outside City.

10c per week.
$5.00 per year.

NOON EDITION.
$2.00 per year by mall.
EVENING EDITION.
City,
Outside City,
10c per week.
$2.00 per year.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS Private Branch Exchange From 10:00 p.m. to 9:00 a.m., and holidays, call 3670, Business Depart-ment; 3671, Editors; 3672, Reporters; 3673, News Room. ADVERTISER JOB PRINTING CO., PHONE 247.

Toronto Representative—F. W. Thompson, 57 Mail Building.
U. S. Representatives—New York: Charles H. Eddy Company, Fifth A 'enue Building. Chicago: Charles H. Eddy Company, People's Gas Building. Boston: Charles H. Eddy Company, Old South Building.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER COMPANY, LIMITED.

London, Ont., Thursday, Sept. 14. THE IRISH VORTEX.

ROM all reports the agitation in any rate against a division of the intrigue which culminated in last the object of the fight is to crush the Easter's rebellion and the recent action bully-serf and obviate all necessity of of Lord Landowne and followers in our having to imitate his ways and go the British cabinet effecting a veto him even one worse. He knows that we upon Lloyd George's settlement.

It was hard enough for both Mr. Germany to be a bad thing. Redmond and Sir Edward Carson, brought together by the tactful Welshman, to lead their followers to the point of consenting to a division of faith in their trained general Ireland, six counties of Ulster to re- staff and veteran regimental officers to main in the Union and the rest of the obtain victory over the hastily-raised country to have a Home Rule Govern- British forces. Even yet they have ment at Dublin. Now since Lord failed to learn one of the great lessons Lansdowne's action, there has come of the war-that a just cause has so a revulsion of feeling in Southern and inspired the British that newly-formed Central Ireland. A wild cry has gone battalions of clerks, farmers, lawyers, up against the compromise, the mo- etc., are able to smash the finest and mentary yielding of the point of Irish most loudly boasted of Prussian or unity. Only most reluctantly did a Bavarian trained regiments. rather small majority of the Nationalist The Huns talk of their trained and in the face? If they want home rule Old methods have given way under sured them of a hearty welcome. That to recall Cromwell's brutal quickly imbibe the new ideas. ogheds as the Easter exshould show them. If, on the quite out of the question. The present trend in Ireland is full of tragedy and the most delicate handling is required. Mr. Redmond is the levellest head in his own country and it is to be hoped that he will continue to dominate the opposition to these Britain has compared to the first of the first of the present the "veterans."

Softest night winds sway the biossoms, in the crooning drowsy lullabys, thusing all the baby blossoms in the crooning drowsy lullabys, thusing all the baby blossoms in the crooning drowsy lullabys, thusing all the baby blossoms in the cradles of the skies.

Softest night winds sway the biossoms, the dance, merely a supper two and after that the wonderful garden and the tree shadows and the scent of late roses and sentiment. And it was sentiment indeed. Some the lights of day.

Softest night winds sway the biossoms, the crooning drowsy lullabys, thusing all the baby blossoms in the cradles of the skies.

Hushing all the baby blossoms in the cradles of the skies.

The experience of these vaunted staff of the neighborhood. It was not a dance, merely a supper two and after that the wonderful garden and the tree shadows and the scent of late roses and sentiment. And it was sentiment indeed. Some the lights of day.

Softest night winds sway the biossoms, the crooning drowsy lullabys, Hushing all the baby blossoms in the cradles of the neighborhood. It was not a dance, merely a supper two and after that the wonderful garden and the tree shadows and the scent of late roses and sentiment. And it was sentiment indeed. Some head in the country and the churchy and after that the wonderful garden and the tree shadows and the scent of late roses and sentiment. And it was sentiment indeed. Some head of the churchy and after that the wonderful garden and the tree shadows and the scent of late roses and sentiment. And uncle Charles did not make the doubt of the churchy and after that the wonderful garden and the tree shadows and the scent of late roses and sentiment. And uncle Charles did not make the political situation there.

SPAIN COMING IN.

fact, one report says he openly ad- stained. vocates an Anglo-French-Spanish al- To which body of men would a civilliance and points out that any other ized nation prefer to trust its army? aware of his presence.

But in this immense struggle, when German victory. the map of Hurope is being radically changed, Senor Maura does not see how Spain can possibly retain her nain the war. He advocates her entry must change his records. for patriotic reasons, without pretend- Concrete ships are now being built. government ownership." ing that it is on behalf of any other The idea was probably inspired by the nation; like Rumania, he advises join- lightness of some concrete heads.

A somewhat remarkable phase of the was thought to be mainly composed propaganda must have been much less oast down over mediocre crops. fruitful than was believed. Thousands their efforts for what they are worth cessfully.

words may be expected to have con- desire revenge taken on the dead? siderable effect on the attitude of the Stefansson is said to have discovered people and, therefore, on the Govern- great quantities of copper in the far

Just what value the services of Spain capture that district and secure a supwould amount to on the battlefield it ply. is difficult to estimate, but an alliance with Britain and France at this time James L. Hughes says the most hopewould certainly drive some additional ful sign of the end of the war was a nails in Germany's coffin. It would statement he heard his brother, Sir 13, 14 and 15. proclaim to the world her trust and Sam, make. Could family affections confidence in her allies to win the war go farther? and would carry weight with the The Turks have a hablt of never ancountries still remaining neutral. To nouncing a retreat unless they retake the German nation, it would carry the the lost ground. Their most glowing From Forest Thedford, Parkhill, Allsa message that outsiders, who see most reports, therefore, always contain a of the game, award victory to the bitter pill. Allies and would necessitate even more tion. The Huns may be persuaded that after September 16 fines for drunken- Stratford Division, Sept. 12, 13 and 14. Rumania was crazy and that Greece is ness will be raised to $20. This will weak, but there is a limit to their oredulity and when they see one in for preparedness. credulity, and when they see one country after another veering to the The new governor-general has in-Allies' side it cannot fail to impress vited any of his tenants visiting Can-them with the hopelessness of their

It is not to be expected that Spain will join the Allies within the next few days. Moves of such import must only be made after deep consideration, but the words of Maura will help the Allies in the meantime, and there is more than a chance that they are the prelude to more definite steps by his country. It is not unlikely that they are officially inspired.

A PACIFIST'S VIEW.

A T THE time of the Boer War, Kipling wrote his poem "The Islanders," a scornful denunciation of British civilianism. In a clever reply and parody by W. Monro Anderson, these lines characterize Kipling's prescription of military service for the 'degenerating' Briton:

"Bidding him strut the pavement Like some war-belted serf: Bidding him rule the people By aping the foreign cur.
Whose market-place is silenced

By the clink of the bully's spur."

Mr. Anderson is a pacifist with a bass voice and a big fist. He sounds as though he would fight for peace. Ireland for independence or at He is not the sort of person that whines in American "neutral" papers island, grows more bitter. The im- about the "uselessness" and "crime" mediate causes of this trouble are the of this great struggle. He knows that are defending our democracy, said in convention concede the release of the veteran officers. What are they? The six Orange counties, and now there majority of them have had much is a feeling like that of Cranmer curs- longer theoretical military training ing amidst the flames of his martyr- than the British officers, but every indication points to the comparative use Will not these people look the facts lessness of this in the present struggle. ada to "give me a call" and has asow they simply can't have it with stress of circumstances to new, or yet kind of talk augurs well for his sucdow they simply can't have it with older, plans, and the adaptability of cess in the Dominion. ce Belfast they will be "knocked in the British has allowed them to more

GERMAN BLINDNESS.

It is not at all improbable that the German "veterans" and their strict the meadows of the sky, German "veterans" and their strict training are a disadvantage to the Teutons. So thoroughly imbued are they with the idea that all must be done ured there and set apart, according to drill and text book, that land, it is plain to any- they are incapable of learning the lesne Tammany sons taught by modern warfare. This In the garden of the heavens, through Ulster, as formation. That their troops were under the home mown down in thousands and yet failin the Lloyd George ed to reach their goal, did not matter; An Ulster sub- the system must be right, and the fault that he will continue to dominate the opposition to these Britain has commanders who have fought in important wars of much later date, and have had lifelong experience in handling troops under every conceivable difficulty. They ever been to a masked ball, and, al-ROM VARIOUS VERSIONS of a went to France ready to assimilate though usually of a quiet disposition, speech made by Former Premier every good scheme which came to their the spirit of the evening had filled Maura of Spain, two facts stand out: notice. They were backed up by men him with sprightliness. Espying a He has decided that continued neutral- in authority, who were not bound and glimmer of white in a very shadowy ity is impossible for his country and tied by red tape, and who did not hesi- opportunity of cultivating Cupid's he favors the friendship of the Allies tate to break through tradition when acquaintance. rather than that of the Germans. In necessary; only honor must remain un-course spells national political extinc- To those experienced, but ready to learn ly. "You forward boy! You ought to meet her here. She was late in arnew tricks and abandon the old and know better, sir! Spain has been a useful neutral, useless, or to those of vast training who King Alfonso having acted as a medi- command by rule of thumb? The ator between Kaiser Wilhelm and his superior qualities of their general staff prisoners on more than one occasion.

But in this immense struggle when German victory.

There was a moment's nestation on garden of southern prettiness and, as fate would have it, a girl in whom—

EDITORIAL NOTES.

So the fine levied on Brussels was tional standing without taking a hand not revoked. The recording angel

Hon. Bob Rogers evidently realizes situation is that his huge following that it is safer to telephone some remarks than commit them to paper.

of pro-Germans. Surely this can With cheese selling at over 20 cents hardly be the case, and the Teuton a pound, dairy farmers refuse to be of Germans, according to Lord North- British Columbia reports seem to cliffe, have been using their influence point to Mr. Bowser having more time in Spain and spending vast sums in an for private business in the near future. endeavor to keep her from having any Russians were once noted mainly as let me see it. I giv' you good price. friendly dealings with Britain and retreaters, but that changed, and Aus-France, but Maura has evidently taken trians have assumed the role most suc-

It is stated that the former premier's There is a great deal of talk about prestige in the country was never so Britain burying that zeppelin crew strong as it is today. If this is so, his with military honors. Would anyone north. Now is Germany's chance to Hamilton magistrate announces that

The Powerful Katrinka Will Never Be Asked To Bring in the Tennis Net Again, BY FONTAINE FOX.

STAR DREAMS.

Where the star blossoms cuddle when the twilight shadows die.

There's a star dream softly nestling in each star flower's silken heart.

the moonlight bars I see, Sparkling dream flowers soft unfurling, growing there for you and me. brighter morrows, day dream bubbles light as air, Luring on to coolest vistas of the great night garden fair.

It was the first time Reginald had corner, he determined not to lose the Noiselessly he approached the fair unknown and, slipping behind her, kissed her almost before she was "How dare you?" she shrieked cross-were my sister!"

"Silly chump!" she snapped. Then, stepping into the light beside him: "So ested beyond the point of friendship. I am!"-Pearson's Weekly.

THE FEMININE VIEWPOINT.

"Have you given the matter any "Yes, indeed. If we had government ownership of railways, I might be able to tell any conductor who didn't find me a seat on the shady side of the car that I wouldn't vote for him next election."

THAT'S BUSINESS.

couple of coppers for my bed. Mr. Jobstein-Ah! now you are talking business. Bring your bed along and

SPECIAL TRAINS IN AND OUT OF LONDON VIA GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY ACCOUNT OF WEST-ERN FAIR.

L. H. and B. Division, Sept. 12, 13, 14. Arrive London, 9:25 a.m. Leave London, 10:50 p.m. Windsor Division, Sept. 12, 13, 14. Arrive London, 9:40 a.m. Leave London, 10:30 p.m

only between Chatham and London. Sarnia Division, Sept. 13 and 14. Arrive London, 10:35 a.m. Leave London, 11 p.m Main Line, East to Brantford, Sept. 13 and 14. Arrive London, 10 a.m. Leave London, 6:35 p.m., Sept. 11, 12, but the fact that letters had ceased to Annapolis."

Leave London, 10:15 p.m., Sept. 13. From Jarvis, Simcoe, Delhi, Tillsonburg, gone so far as that. He must do Aylmer and St. Thomas, via London and Port Stanley Railway, Sept. 13.

Arrive London, 10:30 a.m. Leave London, 9:50 p.m. Craig, Lucan, Granton, St. Marys, Thorndale, Sept. 14. Arrive London, 10:17 a.m. Leave London, 10:30 p.m

Leave London, 11:20 p.m.

Leave London, 11:20 p.m.

The Advertiser's Daily Short Story (Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate) 14 1/3 1/8

The Matchmaker

very beautiful this late September night. Great clumps of dahlias and looking as others, but making up for night. Great clumps of dahlias and looking as others, but making up for that lack by unusual brightness, but rebruary as they did in daily.

of it was play, but so well played that amusement. more frequently than not it ended in

It was in such a play that Warren Addison and Neil Iglehart were the principal actors. The other boy and girl were only accessories. They did not know it. If the hold have been the other to the other to the other to the other.

When two days had not know it. If the hold have hold the other to the other to the other. not know it. If it had been suggested to them that there was lack of earnpassed for conversation, but in reality they were in the grip of misunderstanding and deep-seated anger. Warren had come from Baltimore to riving. When she did appear it was was sadly in need of that intuitive And spill it all upon his gown. "Pardon me," he bluffed readily, stepping out into the light, "I thought you man and her lateness—in Warren's man and her lateness—i mind an intentional thing-made him There was a moment's hesitation on turn to the first pretty girl in that rumor said-he had once been inter-Nell knew this. She also knew herself guiltless of intentional delay. As foreboding.

> was always turned toward the other, at the pommel whenever she thought the bright moonlight making distinct the action would pass unnoticed. Her every varying expression.
>
> If they had known a little more of claimed all of his attention and whose have had an unhappy moment, but the party restive. There was no surquite twenty-one. She cried herself to a stampede down the narrow country sleep that night and Warren took the road.

The Weary One-Then give me a had had the assurance to declare it, crumpled little heap by the roadside. for his matchmaking extended no fur ever before that evening at Ellerslie. Presently Warren spoke: Warren had not been in the country On September 12 these trains will run since then and Uncle Charles could not came to missing this." understand this. He questioned Nell, She leaned a little toward him and > gave him food for thought. something to circumvent a ruthless mattered." fate. But what? He knew how to manage men, for he was a politician, but when it came to patching up a love affair—that was a different proposition entirely and needed more Charles had a keener insight into the finesse than he laid claim to.

He talked the matter over with Aunt to him. Mary. She was interested, but advised not to meddle. That was exactly what he had made up his mind to do, however, and the best way to do it, he Should Sir Sam Hughes succeed in From Guelph, Berlin, New Hamburg, decided, was to have a house party of etc., Sept. 12.

Arrive London, 10 a.m.

Very much pleased with himself, he of the war will be enriched by the church the next received of letters in the

The moon was at its full and the the young men to him. Telling them came from all directions.

The Shelleys were entertaining the young people of the neighborhood. It interest lay in the weekly meetings in the was young I lived in dread

Nell and Warren were to all appearmore frequently than hot the threata game of cross purposes that threatened serious consequences.

Nell and Warren were to all appearances the gayest of the company, but those who knew them well felt there those who knew them well felt there was something wrong between them, And hovered round me day by day, When two days had passed, and then And lurked wherever I have be a week, and Uncle Charles saw no prospect of a settlement of their quarthey would not have believed it. To all appearances, Neil and Warren were absorbed in the give and take that home by moonlight. If that did not bring about results it was his intention And suffer all its torments when home by moonlight. If that did not to have a heart-to-heart talk with to have a heart-to-heart talk with them and to tell them to kiss and the mand to tell the mand to kiss and the mand to tell t was not. She had ridden a little, but there was no pleasure for her in the exercise. She was afraid of horses and the thought of mounting one of the spirited animals she knew would be brought for her use filled her with

She was a coward about horses,, but save as the means of dealing a hurt, stronger than her cowardice was her cow stable will increase the flow "Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Tor- and as she passed her angry fiance kins, "I am going to be in favor of her face filled with herefore in her threat and as the passed her angry fiance here here to be herefore filled with herefore in here threat and the covariance was her covariance was her formation. The stables are about her face, filled with laughing interest, her heart in her throat and clutching life the two foolish things would not antics, at last, made every horse in she was seventeen and Warren not prise felt when he bolted and started early train for Baltimore. Neither had Nell was the only one incapable of THAT'S BUSINESS.

The Weary One—Heip a poor man spoken ten words to the other.

on the road, sir.

Mr. Jobstein—I haf need to help

Uncle Charles was a matchmaker. He dropped. As they fell from her hand, the first overcame her and the reins dropped. As they fell from her hand, the horse shied and she lay—a would have resented this if any one the horse shied and she lay-a ther than his favorite niece and "that A year later, the scene was again boy," as he called Warren Addison. laid in the garden at Ellerslie. The He had done everything in his power dahlias and chrysanthemums again to further a marriage that was vio- made patches of color and the moon lently opposed by the girl's father; had brought out clearly the youthful forms even promised to help them when they wandering up and down the grasswere ready to set up housekeeping. grown walks. The two were as poor as the proverbial church mouse, and had looked forward to a long wait before building be had pulled to pieces. They had been very quiet and the thought of that This home looked farther away than other night was in the minds of both. "Nell, Nell, to think how near we but could get nothing from her save a shrug and a toss of her head. If War-"I do not think we would have missshrug and a toss of her head. If Warren didn't care to come and was tired of writing, she wasn't going to worry longer. I hoped you would speak. If herself about it, she declared. That was all the old gentleman could learn, but the fact that learn and I would have told you on that ride He laughed a little. "And I? Well,

He had not suspected the trouble had I was waiting my opportunity when your horse shied. After that nothing He gave a quick glance backward. No one was in sight and he leaned over and touched her lips.

> ways of lovers than had been credited THE LAST STRAW. [Victoria Times.]

Very much pleased with himself, he of the war will be enriched by the went to church the next morning and publication of a series of letters in the 59n after service called two or three of Lindsay, Ont., Warder, ARMAIT A MINUTE! -By J. H. F.

The Germans will go after the Rumanians, it is stated. They probably have their hands so full elsewhere that Garage, 76 and 78 York street, London. they will not be in a position to do Telephone 2. 60n they will he. They would dearly love much damage. They would dearly love to put the Rumanians off the map.

We never could understand why anybody should pull off a mock fried oyster dish. It's like adding a dash of white to a regular lily.

A gent named Plum is the champion trap shooter. Beating the others looks like a pudding to him.

Mexico must revive itself, says President Wilson. This is supposed to be a direct slap at Billy Sunday, Carranza is trying to borrow $300, 000,000. He must intend to get out of provide for a comfortable old age.

that country soon, and would like to control. It looks as if it should have been the thing before they were born.

hopelessly insane, as a result of the sufferings of his men in the war. When the rulers of the central powers suffer shown something this year.

will end. Stick at it until you land. Fair, an individual saying that there was nothing naughty to see. The old Adam dies a mighty hard death.

A new lady's cape makes fullness the thing. That will never do in London after September 16th.

A lot of country cousins are now getting even for entertaining city folks in the summer.

to know who has the money. * * * Buffalo robes are very expensive, we read. They're not much use in July at From spots of color in the dim light, and the hum of voices and gay laughter week of gayety. For this happening regular ode to castor oil. We give it

So much as thoughts of castor oil.

A ghost that haunted orchards green My too-brief hours of joy to spoil. It is that stuff called castor oil.

The mother says: "You hold your nose dread the scenes they always make When mother gets it from the shelf, And I could run away myself. I'd rather stand to war's alarms

Of giving children castor oil. Ragtime music played in the

And face the disagreeable toil

ache. Nervous headache has been de scribed as the cry of the starved brain

Because of its remarkable blood-forming and blood-enriching quali-ties, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food ranks ties, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food ranks first as a means of overcoming nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, headache, indigestion, sleeplessness, trritability and all the annoying symptoms of nervous breakdown.

It is not a mere relief, but thorough cure; for it rebuilds and reconstructs the wasted and depleted 50 cts. a box, 6 for $2.50.

From Montreal. From Montreal. To.
Carthaginian.Sept. 13 Glasgow
Corinthian...Sept. 16 London
Pretorian...Sept. 16 Glasgow
Grampian...Sept. 16 Liverpool
Sicilian...Oct. 4 London
ScandinavianOct. 7 Liverpool
Scotian....Oct. 14 Glasgow
Grampian...Oct. 21 Liverpool

Steamers on London Service

THE ALLAN LINE 95 King St. West, TERONTO carry cabin passengers only.

the best place to play some of this music.

Traction Company

Reduced fares to London Sep. tember 8 to 16. Return limit September 20. HOURLY SER-VICE and extra cars St. Thomas to London Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

London & Pt. Stanley Ry. Reduced Fares To London

ACCOUNT WESTERN FAIR.

The kalser's son-in-law is said to be STANLEY RAILWAY between London and Port some more there may be a possibility of Stanley. Time limit extended till Ocober 10, 1916.

Daily 40c fare extended to of the citizens. The directors have shown something this year. Stanley Railway game of prophesying when the war will end. Stick at it until you land. 5:20 a.m. and hourly thereafter at 20 minutes after the hour until 10:20 p.m. We heard some criticism of the shows on the Midway at the Shows on the Midway at the the shows of Sunday service commences at 6:20 a.m., commencing June 19, 1916.

MONTREAL TO LONDON A Boston girl eloped with her Sept. 5 . . Ascania . . Sept. 23 sweetheart's father. She seems sept. 23 AUSONIA Oct. 12

CABIN AND THIRD-CLASS. MONTREAL TO BRISTOL (Avonmouth Dock.)

Sept. 26.. Feltria .. Oct. 12 For Information apply local ticket agent, or The Robert Reford Company,

LONDON TIMETABLES

Grand Trunk Railway.

Traction Company

Western Fair.

Beduced fares to London September 1. Seeduced fares to London September 2.

Grand Trunk Railway.

Grand Trunk Railway.

SARNIA TUNNEL TO SUSPENSION BRIDGE AND TORONTO.

Arrive from the east—*4:53 a.m., *10:23 a.m., *11:05 a.m., 11:50 a.m., 10:40 p.m., 10:40 p.m.

Arrive from the west—*12:24 a.m., *8:50 a.m., *12:15 p.m., *4:12 p.m., 6:25 p.m., 5:35 a.m., *12:15 p.m., *4:12 p.m., 6:25 p.m., 5:40 a.m., 7:25 a.m., *9:00 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *12:20 p.m., 2:00 p.m., *4:12 p.m., 6:25 p.m., 5:45 a.m., 7:25 a.m., *11:75 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *12:20 p.m., 2:00 p.m., *4:25 a.m., *1:17 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *1:40 a.m., 10:28 a.m., 11:17 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *1:40 a.m., 10:28 a.m., *1:17 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *1:40 a.m., 10:28 a.m., *1:17 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *1:40 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *1:40 a.m., *3:35 a.m., *3:3

LONDON AND WINDSOR.

Arrive—10:23 a.m., *4:00 p.m., *7:05 p.m., 11:05 p.m.

Depart—6:35 a.m., *11:35 a.m., 5:23 p.m., *9:10 p.m.

STRATTORD BRANCH.

STRATTORD BRANCH.
Arrive—4:20 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 1:45 p.m., 5:25 p.m., 7:50 p.m., 11:20 p.m., Depart—*6:05 a.m., 7:20 a.m., 12:39
p.m., 2:45 p.m., 5:00 p.m.

LONDON, HURON AND BRUCE.
Arrive—10:95 a.m., 6:15 p.m.
Depart—8:30 a.m., 4:40 p.m.
Trains marked * run daily. Those not marked, daily except Sunday; z
Mondays, Wednesdays, Saturdays; x
Tuesdays, Fridays. Sundays.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

The Germans are substituting yeast for bread. They will probably soon get the hops from frogs.

ACCOUNT WESTERN FAIR.

Good going Sept. 8 to 15, inclusive.

Return limit Sept. 16, 1916.

During Fair week extra trains, stopping only at Glanworth and Westminster, will be run between London and St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains.

St. Thomas, leaving five minutes ahead of the regular trains. Iowa physicians are strong for birth LONDON AND PORT daily.
Depart for the east—5:20 a.m. daily, ontrol. It looks as if it should have to be the before they were how. STANLEY RAILWAY

Summer commutation books

Summer commutation books

Summer commutation books

Michigan Central.

Trains leave St. Thomas: For east—*2:38 a.m., *3:33 a.m., $:35 .m. (except Monday), *12:40 p.m., $3:10 .m., *7:25 p.m., *9:26 p.m., *10:00 p.m., not take Verdun. We guess NOT.

The Western Fair is the best in recent years, and deserves the patronage of the citizens. The directors have Pere Marquette.

Trains leave St. Thomas (Kains street depot) for Chatham and Walkerville. L. and P. S. cars leaving London 6:20 a.m., and 3:20 p.m. Trains arrive St. Thomas from west at 11:55 a.m. (noon), 8:50 p.m. connect-ing with L. and P. S. cars arriving at London 12:48 p.m. and 10:02 p.m.

London to St. Thomas and Port Stan-ey—7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., :30 p.m., and hourly to 7:30 p.m., 9:15 .m. Last car to St. Thomas only at

Traction Company

OFFERS FINEST SERVICE TO Chicago --- Detroit---

Montreal OVER THE DOUBLE-TRACK ROUTE.

For full information regarding fa

Limited, General Agents, 50 King street P. and To MONTREAL, QUEBEC & LIVERPOOL PASSENGER SERVICE.

"Northland," 12,000 tons ... Oct.
"Southland," 12,000 tons ... Oct.
"Canada," 10,000 tons ... Nov Waa RATES: C class, $33.75. WHITE STAR CARGO SERVICE.

41 King Street East, Toronto, Ont

The Lights of 65 Years Ago

EDDY'S MATCHES

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO THE FIRST CANADIAN-MADE MATCHES WERE MADE AT HULL BY EDDY AND SINCE THAT TIME FOR MATERIALS AND STRIK-ING QUALITIES, EDDY'S HAVE BEEN THE

WHEN BUYING MATCHES SPECIFY

EDDY'S

ARE STILL DOING DUTY IN THE SHAPE OF

ACKNOWLEDGED BEST.