who objected to paving Central avenue, Piccadilly street, and Adelaide street between Rattle and Oxford streets, all three jobs having been authorized by the city council. Ald Wenige cited the Victoria School, and hydro east end with string tenders as examples where sub-station tenders as examples where contractors bid the estimates. Stanley street, and its famous pavement which has assumed a forget-me-not attitude in civic circles was the next subject on the agenda, Ald. Wenige asking what steps the city solicitor has taken to collect the claim due for the track allowance pavement on Rectory street, and the stand taken by the committee regarding Stanley street. After considerable discussion the latter problem was referred to the city council meeting, at which the city solicitor will be requested to attend and explain what course of action is open. DIES IN WINNIPEG

Sidney Westbury III Only Short Time With Sleeping Sickness.

Sidney Westbury, formerly of this city, died in Winnipeg General Hospital, Wednesday, following a brief ill-ness from sleeping slckness. Mr. Westbury came to Canada some years ago from England, taking a position with McClary Manufacturing Company. He went overseas with the 33rd Battalion, and was wounded, upon his recovery taking the position of instructor, He returned to London a year ago last April, shortly afterward going to Win-nipeg for the McClary Company. He was attached to the claims department when he died. Mr. Westbury was 28 years of age, and is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters, all of whom reside in England. SPRINGBANK PICNICS

Occasional showers failed to damper the jubilant spirits of many picnicker churches and other organizations in Springbank Park on Wednesday. Prac-tically every available open spot in the great playgrounds was occupied, when six large picnics, including those of two local churches, one local firm, an Aylmer church, a Masonic lodge of Granton and the combined churches of Lambeth were

With more than 400 in attendand St. Andrew's Church of this city cele-brated one of the largest and gayest outings of its history. Other than to slightly delay the running of the long lists of sports, the rain had little effect on the scores of children who were so enthusiastic that they could be scarcely kept dry.

Besides all the conventional dashes and races many unique events were introduced into the long program of sports. Many of these freak contests including a feather race, a newspaper race, a driving contest, a bottle contest, a ball-throwing contest and a candy scramble for children of three years and under, created not a little amusement

Napoleon's Ideal Woman

The great Napoleon, in response to question once asked by a lady, repiled:
"My ideal woman is not the beautiful society belle or the butterfly of fashion, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation of health, with stalwart children by her side." There are a great many women of middle age who owe their good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com ills. For almost fifty years this wonder ful medicine, compounded of roots and herbs, has been restoring suffering women to health.
