A Strange Find. Curator Fannin, of the Provincial Mu-seum, has a novel watch charm which was presented to him by Mr. Louis Deepard. The charm is made from the metamorphosed claw of a fossil animal supposed to have been a panther. The find was made by Mr. Despard while prospecting for coal near Cape Mudge. He uncarthed the fossil bonesof animmense panther. The bones were too soft to be removed, crumbling away at the touch, but, strange to say, the claws had become transformed into glittering white quartz, hard and polished, as if from the hand of a skill workman.
