CLEAN DELIVERY SERVICE

STANDFIELD'S UNDERWEAR FOR WOMEN and CHILDREN

It is not the guarantee that makes our goods so dependable. It is the goodness of our goods that makes a guarantee like ours possible.

ADVERTISE CAMPBELLTON

The Graphic has had engraved a map of the Maritime Provinces, Quebec and Maine, showing the location of the principal towns, with Campbellton in large type. It also shows the railways which connect Campbellton with the outside world. This may be printed on the back of business envelopes and should be used by every business house in Campbellton, as it is an excellent advertisement for this town. Place your order at once.

DANGEROUS PRACTISE

One day last week a bullet from a high power rifle fired somewhere from the back of the town, crashed through the window of Dr. Martin's residence on Water Street. Had there been anyone in the room at the time, a tragedy would certainly have ensued. People are altogether too lax in the handling of firearms, and it should appeal to any who have even the least amount of common sense that the discharge of fire arms within the town is dangerous.

MAIR-HARPER

At the home of Col. and Mrs. Bedford Harper, Middle Sackville, on Tuesday, their daughter, Miss Margaret A., and Mr. Douglas J. Mair, of Vancouver, were married by Rev. S. Howard. The groom is manager of a branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Vancouver.

NO INCREASE IN PRICE

Despite the fact that there has been a considerable advance in the price of paper of all qualities, the Graphic has not advanced the price on any of its printed stationery. We will in the meantime fill all orders at former prices. Every merchant should order printed matter from their local printer. Besides the usual commercial printing, we supply all kinds of loose leaf outfits, counter check books and card index systems.

EXPRESS DERAILED

The express on the International road was derailed on Tuesday evening about two miles from Richards. The train was backing up to the Y-railing tender first, but beyond delaying the train for some hours, no damage was done.

EXCHANGE

Rev. C. W. Smith preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning of the 27th, and Rev. J. H. Jenner in the Methodist church.

ROSS-HUNTINGTON
The marriage of Miss Sarah C. Ross of Hopetown and Mr. John W. Huntington of the same place, took place at the manse in New Carlisle on Wednesday evening, Sept. 16th. Rev. Mr. McLeod performed the ceremony. Miss Pearl Ross acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Philip Ross, brother of the bride, supported the groom. From the manse they drove to the brides mother's, Mrs. Cameron Ross in Hopetown, where a dainty supper was served to about 90 invited guests. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents. The happy couple will reside in Hopetown. The Graphic joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Huntington a long and prosperous married life.
