The Baptist states that The World is a tireless advocate of the European and New York Sunday. Our contemporary is far astray in its idea of our position. The World believes in minimizing Sunday labor to the utmost. Our theory is that in or should be allowed to work on Sunday unless he is ministering to that kind of rest which we think is essential for the public, moral and physical well-being. As the preacher and church singers are the servants by whom the people secure the spiritual rest they desire on Sunday, so the motorman is the minister through which they secure the sire on Sunday, so the motorman is the physical side of life. There is plenty of opportunity on Sunday for the people to the set which the religious and the several singer and the religious and the several singer are the servants by whom the physical side of life. THE TORONTO WORLD yarns. An American genius who was out on a, fishing expedition recently came across a dwarf who lived on the banks of the lake. The latter was three feet high and heavily whiskered. The Yankee, having caught a pike, put a tomahawk in the hands of the dwarf and had the fish suspended perpendicularly beside him. The outfit was then photographed. The picture looked like a giant Canadian voodsman with an ax swung over his shoulder, and near him was a fish that
