German Spy is Landed Again.

New York, Sept. 23-"Lieutenant" Robert Fay, convicted German agent, in prison more than two years ago, who was caught in Spain recently, has been brought back to this country and is n the custody here of the department of justice. He reached here today under guard from New London (Conn.) where he arrived from Spain on a United States naval vessel.

Disposition of his case awaits . instructions from Washington, it was announced by the department of justice office here. Fay, who styled himself a lieutenant in the Prussian army, was sent to serve a three years' sentence after his conviction in the New York federal court on the charge of conspiring with others in a plot to blow up Entente ships leaving New York harbour. Fay had perfected a powerful bomb, designed to blow up a ship's stern.
