Banks ill.

At the closing of the school for the holidays, a very interesting entertainment and treat were given, reflecting much credit on the teacher, Miss Ina Durling, for the excellent way in which she trains her pupils for such occasions. The room was tastefully decorated and the blackboards, with the drawings and mottoes presented a picturesque appearance. Miss Durling was the recipient of several pretty and useful presents from her scholars.

(Dec. 24th, '07.)

Miss Lilah Hutchinson and brother, Bradford are spending their Christmas vacation with friends in Digby.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Simeon Henshaw, on the evening of Dec. 24th., when her daughter, Beatrice Lavenia was united in marriage to Mr. Ariel Berthel Fanny of Milford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. S. Lewis. The bride was attired in white muslin and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The wedding party stood under a floral arch, while the ceremony was performed. The mas-tron of honor was Mrs. T. T. Messin-ger. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Milford Henshaw. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Miss Grace Fanny. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was partaken of. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. On Thursday they left for Milford, where they intend making their home. We wish them many happy years of wedded life.

LOWER GRANVILLE.
(Dec. 24th, '07.)

Mrs. H. A. Crook, J. H. Schaffer, and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Johnson, went on the East-bound train from Karadale Station on Monday to spend Christmas with relatives.

The teacher and pupils of Karadale school gave a literary entertainment in the school room on Friday evening.
All who attended were greatly pleased with the way the programme was rendered and the general evidences of advancement in study made by the pupils. Miss Tanch, the teacher is evidently doing good work. The pupils presented her with a volume of Longfellow poems.

The many friends of Miss Mary A.
Tanch of this place, heard with deep regret on Monday, of the injuries she received that day by falling on the ice near her home at Granville Ferry.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Kate Johnson, daughter of Capt. Joseph Johnson of this place, to Mr. Harry Boyd of Salem, Mass., has been received. The happy event took place in that city, Dec. 2nd. We extend congratulations.
