

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

The present Situation of Affairs between Great-Britain and her American Colonies, will justify this Publication. Mutual Advantage is the most solid Basis, the strongest Cement of Union, in all Connections, whether political or private. To shew such Advantage therefore, must be the most effectual Means of preserving that Union, so much and so wisely wished for, by every Friend of his Country.