

VETERINARY SURGEON.

ANDREW SMITH, Licentiate of the Edinburgh Veterinary College, and by appointment, Veterinary Surgeon to the Board of Agriculture of Upper Canada, respectfully announces that he has obtained those stables and part of the premises heretofore occupied by John Worthington, Esq., situated corner of Bay and Temperance streets, and which are being fitted up as a Veterinary Infirmary.

Medicines for Horses and Cattle always on hand. Horses examined as to soundness, &c.

Veterinary Establishment, Corner of Bay and Temperance Sts.

Toronto, January 22nd, 1862.

The Imported Thorough-Bred Horse "Charon,"

WILL stand for Mares, at Mr. St. George's Farm, Second Concession, and travel as follows, from 1st May: He will leave his own stable on Monday at noon, proceeding down Yonge Street and stopping as required. Will remain at Steele's Tavern all night, will go on to Toronto on Tuesday morning, and stop till Wednesday at noon at Bond's Livery Stables. Will proceed to Weston, and stop there all night; return home on Friday, by Yonge Street; will remain all night at Steele's Tavern, and arrive at his own stable on Saturday morning.

CHARON is by "Archy," by "Camel," by "Whalebone," by "Waxy," by "Pot-8-o's," by "Eclipse," &c, &c. His dam, "Styx," was by "Defence," out of "Proserpine, &c." See Stud Book. Any one acquainted with the English Turf and Stud Book will see that there is not in America a better bred horse than Charon. His pedigree includes the most celebrated sires, and the most fashionable blood of England. Charon was in training for the Derby when he was purchased and brought to Canada. See Ruff's Guide.

TERMS: Season Mares, $12; Single Leap, $8; Thorough bred, $20, and $12, single leap; Groom's fee, 50 cents.

Mares will be taken into pasture, and carefully attended to on Moderate Terms.
