That Church of course can never stand in need of reformation. The very attempt of man to reform this the most piece, the most noble of all the works of God, is a most daring, most sacrilegious most b'asphemous act of impiety, of which no precedent can be found, except in the attempt made by Satan to equal himself to the Most High, for which he was precipitated into the eternal abyss. This holy Catholic Church is spread over the universe, which makes it Catholic, teaching every where the same dectrine, because she is wholly inspired and directed by the holy spirit of truth, John xiv. 19, 17, 29 and always guided by Christ. Matt. xxviii. 20. The ministers of that Church form but one body, of which St. Peter and his successors were by divine authority constituted heads. Mat. xvi 13, 19, Luke xxii. 32. Joan. xxi. 15, 19, 77.

" The communion of Saints." In the Church of God there is a communion of its members in Holy things being partakers of the same spiritual blessings, sacraments, &c. which Christ empowered his Church to administer. We likewise communicate with the blessed saints in Heaven. They are landed already on the shores of eternal peace. We are yet tossed by the raging billows of a tempestuous sea. We streeh our hands to them for help: we beg their intercession to obtain a safe landing. We meditate on their virtues: we are encouraged by their examples; we confide much in their charitable intercession. Revel, v. 8. Zach. i. 12. 7 Machab. zv. 12-14. Tob. xii. 12 Heb. i. 14. Rev. ii. 26, 27. Luc, xv. 10 Matt. xviii. 10, &c. Whilst !! we look up to the saints in Heaven for their help promised the spirit of truth to it, to guide it into all and as stance, we offer up our prayers and intercession for those of our fellow members, who having thed before they had fully satisfied the justice of God, have yet to suffer for a time, before they can be admitted into that sanctuary, were nothing defiled can enter. 1 Cor. iii. 15. 1 Pet. iii. 18-20.

The forgiveness of sins. This forgivness of sins originating in the infinite power and mercy of God alone and granted solely in consideration of the merits of Christ, is adminstered to us by the ministers of Christin the holy Catholic Church, first in the sacrament of baptism, and then again in the encrament of penance, upon our sincere repentance and conversion, and upon our sincere confession. James v. 16, &c.

The resurrection of the body, and life everlasting "Amen." A glorious resurrection of soul and body by which we are to become members of the Church triumphant of Jesus Christ, will be granted to only one and true Church miltant of Christon earth And those who had not the holy Catholic Church, the spouse of Christ, for their mother, will find to yourself and others any longer? Corrupted reason their everlasting corrow, that they have not Jesus sat upon the tribunal in this world, and with more Christ for their father and saviour.

Permit me now dear Sir, to 'adress' you in the spirit of charity, and to entreat you to meditate se- by an omnipotent God to be judged, to be approved riously on the following solenm truths :-

The day is fast approaching, when both you and I will be summoned before the dreadful tribunal of Jesus Christ; I, in the cap: city of a Roman Catholic Priest, you in the capacity of a Protestant Minister both claiming the title of Minister of Christ. What will become of that one who shall not be able then to substantiate his claim, and to establish his title. We may be suffered by a God of infinite mercy! and patience to establish the most unfounded, the most extravagant titles before men; but will the illusion be suffered to continue before the tribunal of eternal justice? And will not the bright rays of pure and undefiled truth, for ever dissipate those foul and thick mists of corruption, which in this world enable us to dupe ourselves and others? Will not the two edged sword of truth cut offull those difficulties which our corruption had raised, as a bulwark against the authenticated revelations of Jesus Christ? Will not the bright & dazzling rays of glory that shall emanate from the throne of the omnipotent Judge, he the most incontestible proof of the divinity of his revelation, and of the truth of those mysteries against which proud and corrupted reason suggested so mary difficulties?

When the sacred code shall be opened by which all christians are to be tried, will it be permitted there think you, to allege the foolish dictates of human philosophy, in opposition to the plain revelations of that sacred code? Will it be permitted there to talk about reforming the most noble work of the great God? Will it be permitted there(by way of apology to tell Jesus Christ, that he broke his repeated promises? that he had promised to be with his Church to the end of time' and yet he had forsaken that Church and permitted it to go astray? that he had truth, for ever and yet be had withdrawn that spirit of truth, and permitted the Church to become a sink of errors, & idolatry? Will it be permitted there to call the plain ordinances of Jesus Christ, Papist Superstitions? Will it be permitted there, (by way of apology for not complying with his ordinances,) to tell Jesus Christ, that such and such things were impossible; that no man could forgive sin, not even those who most plainly and distinctly had received that power from him? Will you be permitted there, think you, to tell Jesus Christ to his face, that it was impossible for him to give his flesh and blood under the appearance of bread and wine? Will you to the plain and repeated essertions of infinite was

Will it be permitted there, think you in the fac of the cross, that sign of the Son of Man, to ridiculthose who signed themselves with that holy

In short, sir, will it be permitted there to deceive than satume presumption, summoned befor it th tremendous mysteries clearly & distinctly revealed or condemned, according to its own whinsical nohous, and more so according to its corrupt in clinations. The case will then be reversed; minute power and wisdom will re-ascend the judgment-sea: proud reason, with all its boasted philosophy, with stand confused, applaled, convicted, and be for ever

Will it be permited to say, by way of apology, I rejected such and such mysteries, because I could not understand them or because they appeared to me impossible? But you were not required to un derstand them, you were only commanded to listen and adore and this you could have done as easily as so many millions of persons as wise as yourself. Ah! sir, believe me, believe a person who is sincerly concerned for the salvation of your soul, the very garb which at present is considered by you as a mark of distinction and honour, will before the dreadful tribunal on the day of God's eternal vengeance, be the terror and despair of your soul, and its everlasting condemnation; I mean the garb of Protestantism. You protested! against what? against the Church of Christ against divine ordinanaes? against divine and tremendous mysteries against all that is sacred! This was not enough. Under the title of minister of Christ, you taught thousands to do the same to ridicule and blasphenic what they did not understand, and by misrepresenting the holy mysteries of the Catholic Church, you prevented their return to the only sheep-fold of Christ, from which the pride and corruption of some arch-heretics of former times caused their ancestors to depart. Thousands and thousands of these unfortunate lay-people will have a lawful excuse to allege before the tribunal of impartial justice; to wit the misrepresentations of their teachers. Many of them will find their acquittal in the plea of invincible ignorance. Will this plea be of any avail to those; who with seeing eyes would not seef _to those, who without mission from above, without deputation from the Catholic Church of Christ, presumed to step into the sanctuary, and to arrogate to themselves that sacred title which the Catholic Church alone can give, she being exclusively the depository of the power of Jesus Christ on earth.

For God's sake, dear sir, If you value the glory of God the salvation of your soul, give up protesting against the Catholic Church: in it alone-you will find salvation. Assurs as God lives it is the there be permitted to allege the testimony of your true Church of Christ. May the day of judgment
