LITTELL'S LIVING AGE

Being published in weekly numbers of sixty-four pages each, gives to its readers more than three thousand double-column octavo pages a year of the most valuable, instructive and entertaining reading of the day. "History, biography, fiction, poetry, wit, science, politics, criticism, art,—what is not here?" It is the only compilation that presents with a satisfactory completeness as well as freshness, the best literature of the almost innumerable and generally inaccessible European quarterlies, monthlies and weeklies,—a literature embracing the productions of the ablest and most cultured writers living. It is therefore indispensable to every one who desires a "thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world," who has a taste for the best literature, or desires to keep pace with the intellectual progress of the age.

Considering the quantity of reading matter furnished, the subscription price, ($8.00 a year) is very cheap; but for those who desire the cream of both home and foreign literature, a still cheaper offer is made, of which the lovers of the best literature, will avail themselves in great numbers: viz., for $10.00 remitted to the publishers of Living Age, they will send that magazine weekly, and either one of the following, for a year, "Harper's Monthly," "Weekly," or "Bazaar," "The Atlantic Monthly," "The Galaxy," "Old and New," "Lippincott's Monthly," or "Appleton's Journal" (weekly); or for $8.50, they will send The Living Age and "The Riverside Magazine" or "Our Young Folks," for a year.

The Living Age is pronounced by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, The Nation, New York, and other high critical authority to be "the best of all our eclectic publications," and we can do our readers no better service than by calling their careful attention to it.
