

JESUS.

LET us sing to Jesus,
 Let us bless His name ;
 For to seek and save us,
 To our world He came.

Let us pray to Jesus,
 He will hear our cry,
 And will send to help us,
 From His throne on high.

Let us all love Jesus,
 For He loved us so
 That He died to save us,
 From our sin and woe.

Let us trust in Jesus,
 He alone can save,
 And He waits to give us
 Life beyond the grave.

Let us follow Jesus,
 In the path He trod ;
 This will upward lead us,
 To the throne of God.

There we shall see Jesus
 Sitting on His throne ;
 He will smile upon us,
 Calling us His own.

TAKE the sunshine that may be
 In the skies spread over thee ;
 Take the little bursts of bliss
 Possible in worlds like this ;
 Take with songs of grateful praise,
 Love that blesses any days.
 These are parts of one great whole ;
 But for that which fills the soul
 Wait awhile.

THE LESSON STORY.

Jesus next warned his disciples against people who pretend to a goodness which is not real. Just as a tree can be known by its fruits, so these people can be known by their acts, for a good person, like a good tree, cannot show evil fruits. He told them that not those who call themselves Christians, but those who do right, will enter into God's heavenly kingdom. Then he ended his sermon by showing a picture of two men : one who built his house on a rock, where the storm could not shake it ; the other who built his house on the sand, where the waves washed it away. The house on the rock was like him who heard and obeyed these words of Jesus ; the other was like him who heard, but did not obey them, sure to fail and be lost at last. Then after his sermon Jesus came down from the mountain, while all the people wondered at the good words which he had spoken.
