

eldest son of Mr. Wm. Cross, of Maple Grove, and Miss Maria Wood, daughter of our Lay Reader Mr. Fred. Wood, of Woodside. The bridesmaids were Miss Edna Cross and Miss Laura Wood, and the groomsmen Mr. James Ward and Mr. Duncan Stewart, of Inverness. The Church was decorated with flowers and plants, the altar itself being surmounted by a floral cross and vases of cut flowers. The marriage Hymn and the Wedding March, played by Mrs. Faulconer, contributed at once to the solemnity and joyful character of the Service. It is to us a matter of no little consolation and delight that the newly married couple are to remain in our midst, for they have both been active members of the Diocesan Lay Helpers' Association, and ever helpful in the choir.

Lower Ireland.—A very successful entertainment has been given here, under the auspices of the "Women's Guild," having for its object the raising of funds wherewith to make some external repairs on the Church. Miss Moffat, with her usual organizing ability, had provided an excellent programme. Amongst the contributors we were pleased to see Mr. Rothera, son of the Incumbent of Leeds. Indeed we are ever indebted to our kind friends in Leeds, Inverness, and other adjacent parts, for their patronage and assistance given on such occasions.

It was a matter of especial pleasure to us all to have amongst us, even for a very brief visit, the Rev. I. N. Kerr, recently from Labrador.
