How Long Will a Steinway Piano Wear ?

Once in a life-time you will buy a Steinway Piano. Perhaps then, the instrument, properly repaired, will serve for a succeeding generation. This is no fancy statement, but one of fact. There are scores of Steinway Pianos here in Montreal in active service after four to ten years of wear. In many instances grandchildren play upon Steinway Pianos purchased when their grandmothers were young girls. Once a Steinway, always a Steinway. Made to-day ideally perfect—each Steinway Piano is a masterpiece. We have in stock choicest Steinway Pianos: horizontal and upright grand form. Pianos may be made, exchanged,
