A STOREKEEPER INSURES HIS LIFE, Although he doesn't expect to die right away; he insures his stock, although he doesn't expect it to burn. Why not insure against high prices by studying Taggart's Catalogue, even though you don't expect to buy?
THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING Is in the Asking for more.

We would quit business at once if we couldn't sell a man a second order. Our customers re-order year in and year out. This proves the service, the prices and the quality are right.
