are a very large corporation, with a paid-up capital of over a million, and employing over 500 persons in their factory. It stands to reason that with so much at stake the aim of the Company must be to reach a very high pinnacle in the piano-making art.

And they have reached such a pinnacle without a doubt "The Bell' scored the greatest success at the Industrial Exhibition, winning golden opinions from all classes of the people who visited the superb display and heard the instruments in all their incomparable brilliancy. It was a display worthy of the great Company, the great Fair, and the great Dominion. And no one who visited it will ever forget it.

What gives this Piano a pre-enrinence, a standing over Canadian contemporaries, are the special and exclusive features, the important improvements which the makers have been enabled happily to adopt These embrace he Illimitable Grand Repeating Action, the many-toned "orchestral" and the bushed pins, each of which improvements appeals forcibly to the judgmen. of the observer, even though he be not a musician or expert on piano qualities. ## Presentation to Father Pheian

(Landsay Post.)

Rev. Father Phelan has reason to feel proud of the honors he has received since his elevation to the priesthood about six years ago. These honors do not consist in preferment in office, but in the love and esteem which his faithful and earnest discharge of the priestly duties have engendered, both in his brethren or the clergy, and in the hearts of the pro-vio among whom he has labored as a pastor, and in the estimation of our citizens as a body

For the past three years and seven months he has been assistant to Rt. Rev. Mgr. Laurent. A practical evidence was last night afforded of how Rev. Father Phelan has endeated himself to the people of Landsay during his brief stay amongst them. His Lordship the Bishop baving transferred Rev. Father Phelan to Peterborough, he promptly responded to the call of duty. The position of a priest resembles closely that of the soldier mentioned in the Gospel: "Go and he goeth, come and he cometh; do this, and he doeth it."

The people could not permit Father Phelan to leave without expressing their affection for him as a priest, and their appreciation of his services. Last evening over 100 members of the congregation, including a number of ladies, assembled in the spacious C M. B. A. parlor in the Parish Hall to bid him an affectionate farewell on the eve of his departure for Peterbrough, and to give expression to the feeling aroused by a sense of the loss which the parish was about to sustain. Mgr. Laurent was present, also Rev. Father Sullivan, of Peterborough, who succeeds Father Phelan as curate of St. Mary's.

ADDRESSES AND GIFTS.

Mr. A. P. Devlin, chairman, opened the proceedings with a few appropriate remarks relative to the object of the gathering, and then called upon; Mr. W. F. O'Boyle, who stepped for-ward and read the following address ward and read the following address on behalf of the congregation of St. Mary's. The address was a work of art, being engrossed in old scriptural text, with illuminated hand-painted capitals and ornaments, and had been executed by Mrs. A. O'Loughlin.

The address was expressive of sincere regret at Rev. Father Phelau's departure, and set forth in appropriate language his great worth in every department of church work and in the community at large. Many, many reasons, it read, have we to be grateful to you, therefore we would ask you, before parting from us, to accept this purse as a slight acknowledgement of your noble work, and as an evidence of our love and regard for your sacred person.

At the proper moment Mr. P J. Hurley presented Father Phelan with the purse, which contained $225 in gold.

FROM THE ALTAR BOYS.

Next came an address from the alter boys of St. Mary's, which was read by Master W. Duffus, Master Jas. Gillogly presenting the accompanying gifts—a handsome travelling case and a handsome clock.

Most sincere was the regret expressed at Rev. Father Phelan's departure. For nearly four years had he been associated with the altar boys, unceasingly caring for their spiritual and temporal welfare sociated with the altar boys, unceasingly caring for their spiritual and temporal welfare and he had become endeared to them all. They congratulated him upon his promotion and expressed the trust that it was but a forecast of further ecclesiastical honors.

Father Phelan was visibly affected when he rose to reply, and some moments passed before he regained his self-command. Nor was he alone in his manifestation of deep feeling—many of his hearers were likewise stirred. The incident afforded a powerful and affecting proof of the nature of the bond which has existed between the congregation of St. ha, y's and their beloved curate. The following is a synopsis of Father Phelan's reply:

My Dear Friends—I hardly know how to begin to answer years.

Another point is that "The Bell," while a high-grade piano, is modest in prices, and the terns of payment are made very liberal. Thus, it finds its way into the homes of people moderate circumstances.

The Company ask judgment of "The Bell," simply on its intrinsu merits. They ask no prejudiced opinion. There is a great deal in that.

Dr Taft Bros. Medicine Co.,
Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November I very soon noticed a radical improvement After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully,
