

The Rock of my salvation.

Ps. lxxxix. 26.

necessary for me to leave Toronto last Saturday. I need not tell you that being deprived of the usual Saturday afternoon ramble was by no means the least important factor in that disappointment. The 'ramble' was always full of blessing, instruction, and health to me. I would say just here what my experience has taught me in regard to your strolling together. I believe it to be the most efficient social means employed in your Y. M. C. A. Five weeks residence in your city has formed ties which shall probably never be broken. If I should not return to Toronto again, I shall always remember with pleasure the friends with whom I have roamed the delightful suburbs of Toronto. I am sure there are other young men in the Y. M. C. A. who would prove equally agreeable, but there does not seem to be the same facilities for becoming acquainted with them. I have realized that the social work of the Y. M. C. A. is a very important factor, and would therefore encourage you to continue it. I cannot begin to tell you how much I miss the Y. M. C. A. in all its departments."

Very sincerely yours,
WM. MCINTOSH.

MR. VARLEY'S VISIT.

HE meetings conducted this week by Mr. Henry Varley, the well-known Evangelist from London, England, have been greatly owned and blessed of God in the conversion of sinners. They have also proved "times of refreshing" to His own children.

He gave two Bible Readings on the afternoons of Monday and Tuesday. The subject taken up on both occasions was, "The ministry of Christ, as seen in the life of Simon Peter." Those who were present will not soon forget the practical, pointed remarks which were made. The evening meetings, considering the great excitement in connection with the Volunteer Reception, and so much to detract, were well attended, the lower part of the Hall being comfortably filled. The Gospel was preached with great power and fidelity, and as a result, from forty to fifty publicly professed their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. The singing at the evening meetings, which was rendered by Mr. H. C. Dixon's choir (in connection with the Church of the Ascension) was excellent, and added very much to their success. The members of the choir are tendered our best thanks for their kindness in responding to the invitation to take part in these services.

WHEREWITHAL shall a young man, cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to Thy word.

THERE is a great deal of practical comfort in the thought that God knows us so completely that not a single sin can escape his eye. All of us know evil of ourselves which others do not know; and we even shrink from revealing all that we know of ourselves to our loved ones, lest even their love could not bear the strain of a complete knowledge of our evil. But with God it is different. He knows it all already, and loves us in spite of it all. We know that nothing can be hidden from him, to be revealed to him later, and to change his love for us into anger and contempt. He knows us as we are: he loves us as we are; and he loves us to the end.

Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

Matt. xxvi. 41.
