THE EDITORIAL CHAIR.

Two eventful years laden with change and trial have sped their way into the past, since the Editor assumed the charge of this little paper, which he was led to originate. Looking back upon the past, the labour has been lightly borne; and it has indeed been felt to be one of love. In the humble hope of speaking a word in season to the children of our Church, this little periodical was commenced. We designed to present to the children an object of missionary labour, but we also proposed to speak to them of their Father's house above, and of the way that leads to it. May, as a brother editor has happily phrased it, "these pages shed a ray of light on that path, and may many of the dear children be thereby guided and helped onward in their pilgrimage to "the happy land." Remember dear children, that the way is indeed a happy one. Learn these blessed words, "I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me," and try to act upon them. Come then, young friends, and "let us walk in the light of the Lord." We are very thankful for the many tokens of encouragements we have received, and
