Quips and Cranks.

Barber: How will you have your hair cut, sir? Mr. Gruff: In silence, if possible.

Visitor (in museum): Why don't you get a giraffe? Manager: Can't afford it; they come too high.

"Doctor, I am troubled with shooting pains in my face" "Yes, madam; you use too much powder."

Watts: Saw another girl in bloomers to-day. Mrs. Watts: Did she wear the regu-lation bicycle cap and jacket, too? Watts: Great Scott! I don't know.

"The curious thing about my business," said the mosquito, alighting softly upon the nose of the sleeping victim, "is that its more fun to go to work than it is to stay to hum."

In order to reduce his weight He purchased him a wheel; Before he'd ridden it a week He fell off a good deal.

Mrs Strongmind: If women would only stand shoulder to shoulder, they would soon win the suffrage. Dr. Guffy: But, madam, that is something they cannot do with the present styles in sleeves!

"Come back, come back!" he cried in grief,
"My daughter, oh, my daughter,"
But she sat hid behind her sleeves, And hopelessly he sought her.

Teacher (with outline map): What country is this? Class (dense silence). Teacher: Come, can't any of you remember? It is the shape of a boot. Bright Boy: I remember now. It's Italy, the place where the bootblakes come from bootblacks come from.

"Papa," said little Wilkins to his father, who was reading the paper—"papa, won't you listen to me? Papa" "Don't bother your father, dear," said his mother. "What is it you want to know?" "Why do sailors trim their sails?" "Oh, why to make them look pretty, of course. Whenever you want to know anything just ask mamma."

Crack Boat Builder: Ah! How de do, Mr. Richman? How did that rowboat I made you last summer suit? Mr. Richman: Perfectly. Boat Builder: Ah! I'm glad to hear it I always like to give satisfaction Suited perfectly, eh? Mr. Richman; Yes, I left it in front of my boathouse all summer, and every seallawag who tried to steal it got up. every scallawag who tried to steal it got up-set or drowned."

When he was a young man Bismarck was for some time an official reporter for one of the courts of justice. In those days his temper sometimes got the better of him; but, upon one occasion at least, his wit saved hm from disgrace This was when questioning a witness. The latter made an impudent retort, whereupon the embryo chancellor exclaimed, angrily, "If you are not more respectful, I shall kick you out of the room!" "Young man," said the judge, interrupting the proceedings, "I would have you understand that this is a dignified court of justice, and that if there is any kicking to be done, the caurt will do it!" Ah, you see," said Bismarck to the witness, "if you are not more respectful to me, the court will kick you out of the room. So be careful, very careful, sir!"
