

R.V. Anderson Associates Limited

(continued)

Technological expertise

Environmental planning, water pollution control, water supply, water resources, municipal services, structural engineering, architecture, tunnels, transportation, land development.

Products developed

Total project delivery for environmental projects including some or all of the following: feasibility study, planning, design, build, own and operate wastewater facilities.