

Acknowledgments

The International Trade Advisory Committee's Task Force on Trade and Environment acknowledges the contributions of the following people and organizations in the production of this report.

The project researchers and report authors:

Aaron Cosbey, Program Manager, Trade and Sustainable Development, International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD)

Rob Kerr, Principal, Sustainability Consulting, Project Manager

Ron Yachnin, Senior Research Associate, Business and the Environment Research Program (BERP) at The Conference Board of Canada (CBOC)

Natalie Gagnon, Research Associate, BERP, CBOC

Brian Guthrie, Director, BERP, CBOC

Jan Campfens, BERP, CBOC

The Advisory Committee:

Mike Beale, Environment Canada

Tom Gove, The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Procter & Gamble Inc.

Joe Kostler, Alberta Power

Gordon Lambert, Suncor

Jim Leslie, Co-Chair, IISD

David Lewin, EPCOR

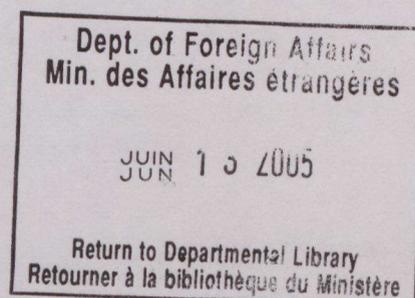

Joe Lukacs, Co-Chair, CETAC-WEST

David Runnalls, IISD

Financial contributions were provided by Environment Canada, Industry Canada, Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, Natural Resources Canada, Suncor, TransAlta, Alberta Power, Procter & Gamble, The Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, Agrium, Novacor, EPCOR, IISD and Syncrude.

The authors extend their gratitude to the case study participants, and to the people in business, government and non-government organizations in Canada, the US and Europe who provided valuable insights and information. The authors also thank CETAC-WEST for initiating the project, securing the funding and providing administrative support.

While the contributions of those named, as well as others, are gratefully acknowledged, any shortcomings in the report remain the responsibility of the authors.

16815831