

- (c) The Preclearance Consultative Group shall commence consultations within 30 days of the receipt of the request unless otherwise agreed between the members;
  - (d) Where the Preclearance Consultative Group fails to resolve a matter within 30 days from commencement of consultations unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, the affected Party may request a meeting of the Parties.
- 3. At any time, either Party may request consultations regarding any portion of this Agreement. Such requests may include but not be limited to changes in domestic law or any other matter a Party considers will affect the interpretation, application or implementation of this Agreement.
  - (a) On matters which the requesting Party states to be urgent, such consultations between the Parties shall commence within 15 days of the date of the request, or in accordance with Article III paragraph 9, or as agreed between the Parties;
  - (b) Consultations on other issues shall commence within 30 days of the request unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.
- 4. The Parties agree that if a court or tribunal should order that any preclearance activity or operation be contrary to the laws or Constitution of either Party, the Parties shall consult on how to proceed.
- 5. Both parties agree to exchange appropriate statistical information including that which can be used as part of the joint review process.
- 6. As appropriate, either Party may engage the services of an independent contractor to conduct surveys regarding preclearance in the departure lounge. The result of the survey will be provided to both Parties.
