PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Athens, May 7, 1949.

Your Excellency:
Upon the instructions of my Government I have the honour to inform you informally and again informally the Royal Hellenic Government through Your Excellency that in all probability I shall leave Athens next July to become the Canadian High Commissioner in Australia.
In due course I shall have occasion to express the measure of my deep regret to Your Excellency, to their Excellencies the President and the Vice-President of the Council of Ministers, and to the countless good and dear friends whom it has been my privilege to have in brave and glorious Greece.
I take advantage of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency assurances of my highest consideration.

His Excellency Mr. Constantine Tsaldaris,
Minister of the Royal Hellenic
Department of Foreign Affairs,
Athens.

Confidential

to advise, for your consideration, that the Canadian Government proposes to appoint Lieutenant George Philipus Taylor, B.S.O., M.C., as Canadian Minister to Greece in London.
It is also proposed that the same gentleman should be appointed to the same post in Ottawa, Canada, and in London, Ontario, Canada.

George Debasia, Esquire,
Minister of Greece to Canada,
Legation of Greece,
Chateau Laurier,
Ottawa.
