[Translation]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): I declare the motion lost.

[English]

Mr. Dingwall: Mr. Speaker, I think you might find that there is a disposition among members in the House that the vote which has just been taken would apply also to Motions Nos. 53, 30, 42A, 58, 60 and 78.

Mr. Angus: Mr. Speaker, for further clarification, the NDP caucus will be voting against Motion No. 57 and in favour of all the remaining motions.

We will vote against Motion No. 57, but in favour of the remaining motions.

Mr. Hawkes: Mr. Speaker, I think the proposition that came from the House leader of the Liberal Party is acceptable to the government. That would leave us voting next for Motion No. 57, but the remaining motions on Bill C-4 would have been settled on the basis of the proposition.

Mr. Attewell: Mr. Speaker, I would just like to say that I will be voting in favour of Motion No. 42A.

Mr. Dingwall: Mr. Speaker, I think to facilitate the Order of the House, since my colleagues of the NDP have indicated that they will be voting against Motion No. 57, we can perhaps expedite the proceedings by informing the House that our party will be voting in favour of Motion No. 57.

[Translation]

Mr. Kindy: Mr. Speaker, I will vote for Motion No. 42A.

[English]

Mr. Hawkes: Mr. Speaker, the government moved Motion No. 57 and will be voting for it. I think Motion No. 57 can be dealt with by putting the vote for Motion No. 5 but in reverse.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): Hon. members have heard the terms of the motion made by the hon. opposition House leader and seconded by the other House leaders. Is there unanimous consent to agree to that motion?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

[Translation]

The House divided on motion No. 53, which was negated on the following division:
