

3. Will the present bridge at Pigeon River be removed and, if not, will it be put to any particular use?

Bill C-87, An Act to provide for the establishment of a National Economic Development Board, was again considered in Committee of the Whole;

And the House continuing in Committee;

At 5.00 o'clock p.m., Mr. Speaker took the Chair.

[Private Members' Business was called pursuant to Standing Order 15(3)]

(Notices of Motions)

Mr. Deschatelets, seconded by Mr. Lessard (Saint-Henri), moved,—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give consideration to the advisability of introducing legislation to provide assistance to epileptics:

- (1) by requiring the federal Civil Service and industry at large to hire a fixed percentage of employable epileptics, as is done in the United Kingdom and elsewhere;
- (2) by promoting with the provinces admission of epileptic children in regular schools on the same basis as any other children;
- (3) by increasing the research work on epilepsy, and by contributing with the provinces to the erection of treatment centers (Foyer Dieppe) for male and female sick persons;
- (4) by improving the conditions under which epileptics live, through a more active public campaign.—(Notice of Motion No. 22).

And debate arising thereon;

The hour for Private Members' Business expired.

The House resumed consideration in Committee of the Whole of Bill C-87, An Act to provide for the establishment of a National Economic Development Board, and further progress having been made and reported, the Committee obtained leave to consider it again at the next sitting of the House.
