G. Harold Burland, Esq.
262 Wellington Street,
O t t a w a , Ont.

Dear Mr. Burland,

I have asked Professor Traquair whether he could accept your invitation to address you on Tuesday, October 17th, and he says he would be very glad to do so. I suggest that you get in touch with him at once, but I think I should warn you that he will expect the usual Lyceum Lecture fee. His lecture, and also that of Mr. Barnes on Alchemy, are among the Lyceum Lectures on the winter schedule of the Department of Extra Mural Relations. I believe you already have copy of prospectus, but I am enclosing one herewith. A professor goes to a good deal of trouble and expense in preparing an illustrated lecture, but I am sure you will find Professor Traquair's on "Old Edinburgh" really delightful, and well worth the small expense involved.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.
