

him.

While it is hard to praise one's own flesh and blood this may I think fairly be said — that his father and mother were people of unusual ability, drive and strength of character and that of heredity accounts for anything the boy should have quality. The letter from his Malhol tutor seems to indicate that he has.

I. we been marooned here