

- of Brébeuf, i. 198, 199; Brébeuf's farewell letter to Le Jenne, i. 213; narrow escape of, i. 215, 216; first to mention Niagara Falls, i. 235; account of Marie de St. Bernard, i. 266; arrival of the nuns in Quebec, i. 275; Bressani among the Hurons, ii. 74; exemplary conduct of Le Berger, ii. 124; treachery of the Iroquois, ii. 161; retaliation of the Hurons, ii. 162; the Huron embassy to the Andastes, ii. 163, 164; honor among Indians, ii. 169, 170; the Huron missions, ii. 171, 172; resistance of the Hurons against baptism, ii. 172; slanders, ii. 176; murder and atonement among the Hurons, ii. 177-183; the defences of Sainte Marie, ii. 185; prosperity of the mission of Sainte Marie, ii. 189; hospitality of Sainte Marie, ii. 191; Father Superior at, ii. 193; Father Daniel, ii. 195; death of Father Daniel, ii. 201; St. Louis burned by the Iroquois, ii. 206; fears for Sainte Marie, ii. 209; relics of Brébeuf and Lalemant found at St. Ignace, ii. 211; murder of Brébeuf, ii. 214; physical weakness of Lalemant, ii. 215; Brébeuf's desire to die for Christ, ii. 216; the visions of Brébeuf, ii. 216; Sainte Marie must be abandoned, ii. 219, 221; the refugees at Isle St. Joseph, ii. 224, 227; misery of the Hurons, ii. 226; devotion of Garnier to his mission, ii. 233; character of Garnier, ii. 233; Isle St. Joseph invested with the Iroquois, ii. 237; the fugitives from Isle St. Joseph slaughtered by the Iroquois, ii. 238; the fury of the Iroquois, ii. 239; the Huron mission abandoned, ii. 241; disappearance of the Algonquins, ii. 242; meeting with Bressani, ii. 243; the Flemish Bastard, ii. 246; death of Father Buteux, ii. 248; ii. 252; Étienne Annaotaha's revenge on the Iroquois, ii. 255; the Iroquois turn their fury on the Neutrals, ii. 263.
- Rapin, Father, ii. 15.
- Raymbault, Father Charles, ii. 29.
- Récollet Friars, the, i. 101, 251.
- Red Pipe-Stone Quarry, i. 167.
- "Relations," the Jesuit, i. 252; spread broadcast throughout France, ii. 6.
- Rennes, Jesuit college of, ii. 54, 56.
- Rensselaerswyck (Albany), ii. 33, 50.
- Repentigny, Le Gardeur de, i. 242, 254; ii. 156.
- Repentigny, Mademoiselle de, ii. 155, 156.
- Rhagenratka, the, i. 33.
- Richelieu, Cardinal de, sends relief to Montmagny, ii. 59.
- Richelieu, Fort, in danger from the Iroquois, ii. 57; receives reinforcement from the Cardinal de Richelieu, ii. 59; attacked by the Iroquois, ii. 61; journey of De Noné to, ii. 76; Father Jogues returns to, ii. 121; plundered and burned by the Indians, ii. 126.
- Richelieu River, the, ii. 33, 44, 59, 70, 96, 119.
- Righechronon, the, i. 35.
- "River of the Neutrals," the, i. 33.