arm, and his Guns double-shotted, did terrible Execution; and so hot was the Fire, that the French Officers found it impossible to keep their Men to their Quarters; so that in about three Quarters of an Hour she struck. There were about 50 Men killed in the Alcide, and about double the Number wounded. In the Dunkirk seven were killed, and about 15 or 16 wounded. The Lys was taken by the Defiance and Fogeux, and in both Ships 600 Soldiers with their Officers, and 50,000 Crowns in Money.

This was a happy Prelude (we hope) to farther Succesfes. And indeed it was not long before the fame good Fortune attended our Arms on Land; as will appear from the following Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant Governor Lawrence, to Sir Thomas Robinson, dated Halifax, Fune the 28th 1755.

I have the Honour to acquaint you, that the French Fort at Beausejour surrendered to Lieut. Col. Monckton the 16th Instant, and the next Day a small Fort upon the River Gaspereau, running into the Bay Verte, where the French had their principal Magazine for supplying the French Inhabitants and Indians. In these Forts was found a great Quantity of Provisions and Stores of all Kinds, of which Col. Monchion has not yet had Time to transmit me a particular Account. I inclose you the Terms of Capitulation. Notwithstanding the Fort at Beausejour had 26 Pieces of Cannon mounted, they furrendered, after four Days Bombardment, before we had mounted a fingle Cannon upon our Batteries. Our Loss upon this Occasion, is very inconfiderable, not above 20 killed, and as many wounded. Major Preble of the Irregulars is flightly wounded; Enfign Tongue, of Major Gen. Warburton's Regiment, acting as Sub-Engineer, received a Shot in his Thigh, as he was taking a Survey of the Ground for Trenches and Batteries to be raised against the Fort; and Ensign Hay, of Col. Hopson's, who had been taken Prisoner by the Indians, in going alone from our Fort to the Camp, was killed by one of our Shells in the French Fort, which fell through a Sort of Casemate, and also killed three French Officers, and wounded two more.

At Col. Monchton's first Arrival, the French had a large Number of Inhabitants and Indians, 450 of which were posted at a Block house, which they had on their Side of the River Messaguash, to defend the Pass of that River.
