

LETTER V.

Town of York—disadvantages of its situation—Proposal to remove the seat of government—Re-embark on board the steam-boat—Lake Ontario at night—Spray of Niagara Falls—Village of Niagara—Its amusements—Affecting incident—Reflections on the condition of emigrants—Road to Queenston—Niagara river—Peach orchards—Canadian peasantry.....70

LETTER VI.

Village of Queenston—Situation—Ferry—Portage—Romantic environs—Heights—Breadth of the Niagara river—Death and character of General Brock—Last American war—Bravery of the Canadians—Effects of the war—Prodigality—Commercial embarrassments—Vanity of the farmers—Tuscorora Indians—Account of their village—Conversation and characters there—Indian hymn—View from Queenston heights—Whirlpool—Thunder storm—Meteorological phenomenon.....85

LETTER VII.

Niagara Falls—Different views of them—View from the Table Rock—Rainbows—A bold experiment—Appearance of the sheet of water—Noise—Difficult road to the bottom of the cataract—A perilous attempt there—View from the river under the cataract—American Fall—Dimensions of the Falls—People carried over them—Anecdote of an Indian—Wild ducks—Visit to Manchester—Mr Porter's bridge above the Falls—Goat Island—Speculations—Rapids of the Niagara river..106

LETTER VIII.

Scenery above the Falls—Curious mineral spring—Village of Chippawa—Merchants there—Mode of carrying on business—Scarcity of specie—Barter injurious to honesty—Mouth of Lake Erie—Ferry—Town of Buffalo—Lake Erie—Excursion along its shores—Canadian Taverns—Sugar-loaf country—Frog concert—Extraordinary scene at a cottage—Banks of the lake—